ELIMINATION OF HUERTA WILL NOT PACIFY REBELS

Willingness of Mexican Dictator to Resign Comes Too Late Says Constitutionalist Leaders—Believe Mexico City Will Be in Their Power Within Thirty Days—American Commissioners Leave For the Mediation Conference.

Washington, May 18. — President Wilson today told the American commissioners who leave tomorrow for the mediation conference at Niagara Falls, Ont., Canada, that the United States government regards the settlement of the Mexican problem in a definite form as a pre-requisite to the withdrawal of the American forces from Vera Cruz.

The President gave the American commissioners—Justice Lamar, of the Supreme Court of the United States; Frederick W. Lehmann, former solicitor general, and diplomatic secretary H. Perceval Dodge no specific instructions. He told them to place themselves in a receptive mood and await proposals from the three South American mediators.

But at the same time he outlined to his representatives that peace in Mexico seemed to him to be conditioned on the elimination of the Huerta administration and the establishment in its place of a strong provisional government which would conduct an election giving fair treatment to all factions and parties, and guaranteeing, moreover, a solution of the agrarian problem and other internal difficulties which have bred revoultion in the Southern republic during the last three years.

The President wishes the Mexican question settled on comprehensive lines that will take into account the economic principles for which Zapata, in the South, as well as Carranza in the north, have been fighting, and at the same time will conserve the rightful interests of the people in the territory now controlled by the Huerta government.

Huerta Ready to Resign.

During the day a dispatch came to one of the foreign diplomats here from a diplomatic source in Mexico City, stating thtat General Huerta was ready to resign and would permit his representatives at the meriation conference to eliminate him, if it should become absolutely necessary. Intimations thtat have come from the three Huerta delegates since their visit to this country showed that they had realized Huerta's elimination was regarded as essentiaml to a settlement, and knew from the outset that unless they came prepared to deal with this phase of the problem their efforts would be fruitless.

The Huerta delegates, too, it is learned from persons who have talked with them, understand thoroughly that the scope of mediation now comprises the entire Mexican problem.

They are said to be ready to recommend Huerta's retirement, but only on the condition that definite understanding is reached on the kind of government that is to follow.

President Wilson in his final talk with the American commissioners, at which Secretary Bryan also was present, spoke hopefully of mediation. He is earnestly desirous that it shall succeed, and indicated that every power and legitimate influence at the disposal of the American government would be exerted to make it succeed.

Though the Constutionalists have not yet agreed to take part in the mediation, one high administration official held out hopes today of their ultimate participation, saying a misunderstanding which might be remedied in a short time, was largely responsible for their failure to be represented at Niagara Falls.

The Entire Mexican Problem.

The President laid before the commissioners the entire Mexican problem as he saw it, emphasizing that the duty of the United States was to seek unselfihsly to assist Mexico to set up a ConstituVtional government which could be accorded recognition by the world, because of its capacity not alone to maintain peace within its confines, but to observe international obligations.

The Huerta delegates have confided privately to friends that the international phases of the Mexican question are closely interwoven in the internal affairs of their country. The mediators have taken a similar position in their communications to General Carranza, saying that the international and internal questions were inseparable. In fact, they have worked out in a general way a plan which they will submit to all factions.

One feature of it became known definitely today. It seeks to eradicate the perplexing Agrarian question but its details have not been revealed. Economic questions, however, will not be submitted until a satisfactory agreement is reached on the political phases. In his talk with the commissioners, the President, too, touched briefly on the land question, speaking of it as perennial cause of discontent, and dissatisfaction which had made it comparatively easy to raise a revolutionry army in army in Mexico.

Plans to Carranza.

All the suggestions and plans are to come from the mediators to the two parties represented at the negotiations, and there is high authority for the prediction that when plans reach tangible form, they will be submitted to Carranza, as well as those who are believed to have influence with Zapata.

The President gave his representatives autograph letters to present to the mediators. These letters refer to the unofficial charactr of th representatives and indicate clearly that the final decision on all questions propounded so far as the United States is concerned will be made by the government at Washington.

The mediation conference is expected to reach a climax in a short time. The President does not look for protracted negotiations, believing that before many days a definite idea of the concessions which Gen. Huerta is ready to make will be obtained. If the Huerta delegates are conciliatory and show themselves amenable to the plans proposed by the mediators and acceptable to the United States, an effort to draw the Constitutionalists to an agreement undoubtedly will be made by the American government as well as by the mediators.

Rebel Forces Not Willing.

In Constitutionalist quarters the talk of a compromise arrangement by which Huerta would retire in favor of a neutral person and cabinet who would conduct an election and guarantee certain immediate reforms has not yet made much of an appeal. Constitutionalist representatives here say their military campaign is daily growing more aggressive and that in another month they will have settled the Mexican question by forcibly taking possession of Mexico City.

As to mediation they insist that the mediators never have answered Gen. Carranza's last telegram in which he sought to know the exact purposes of the mediation before sending a representative to Niagara Falls. The last word from the mediators to Carranza was that in view of his refusal to suspend hostilities with Huerta they must withdraw their invitation for him to participate in the mediation.

In many quarters here it is believed Carranza's inquiry eventually will be answered after the negotiations proceed to a more definate stage, and that the mediators then will submit their plans to him.

Situation Serious.

The military situation in Mexico, however, is giving the Washington government some concern in the meantime and while confidence that mediation will be successful runs high, there are those in the cabinet and the administration generally who are apprehensive lest a sudden and unexpected turn of events may affect the entire status of the negotiations. Some sporadic outbreak among Huerta's troops, irresponsible hostilities against the American forces or complications at Tampico where the Constitutionalists are in control it is realized, may at any moment alter the whole situation.

Not to be Pacified.

Juarez, Mex., May 18.—The report that General Huerta had authorized his delegates to the conference with the South American mediators to present his resignation should that not be necessary to restore peace elicited the statement from Constitutionalists here that such an action would not compose the situation. They asserted that their plans contemplate not only the elimination of Huerta, but also his party.

"Any compromise which would not entirely elliminate the cientificos from politics," said Rafael Musquiz, son-in-law of General Carranza, "simply would mean another revolution. Another Huerta would spring up and the struggle would continue."

Constitutionalist officials said little regarding the intimation by the Huerta delegates that Luis Cabera would be acceptable to the Huerta delegates as provisional president after the resignation of Huerta. They pointed out, however that the Constitutionalist leaders had agreed on General Carranza as provisional president and that General Carranza himself would not be allowed to decline that place without the approval of the leaders, especially the generals of the army.

FLED BEFORE THE WRATH OF HUERTA

Was Formerly Dictator's Most Trusted Friend.

ARRIVES IN VERA CRUZ

Ex-Minister of the Interior of Mexico is Threatened by a Mob at Vera Cruz—Huerta Will Never Yield.

Vera Cruz, May 18.—Hooted by a mob of Mexicans and called an assassin by one who alleged that his brother had been killed by order of the ex-Minister of the Interior, Dr. Aureliano Urrutia, who held that office and was once Huerta's most trusted counsellor, was arrested for the second time late today since his arrival here a few hours earlier among refugees from the capital.

Dr. Utturia had fled from Mexico City to escape the wrath of the President and had the appearance of an ordinary laboring man when he disclosed his identity on board the American train this side of the gap. He was detained by the American officers and taken before Brig. Gen. Funston, who, however, ordered him set at liberty.

He was again taken into custody because of the demonstration made against him, but was released for the second time and sent to his room where he is guarded by a marine, whose presence was requested by the fugitive, in the belief that his life was in danger from his own people.

Antonio Rivero de La Torre, editor of El Dictamen, was the leader of the demonstration against the former minister. He appeared in the street beneath the window of the room occupied by Dr. Urrutia at the Diligencias Hotel, and began an impassioned speech.

He shouted: "Assassin! Coward!" and charged that Urrutia was responsible for the execution of his brother, one of the deputies of the Congress which Huerta dissolved. He cried out that Urrutia feared to walk the streets like an honest man and challenged him to appear before the small crowd of his countrymen who had already gathered.

Both Arrested.

De la Torre was arrested and taken to police headquarters and a few minutes later Dr. Urrutia also was taken to police headquarters, but as there was no evidence to warrant his detention he was led back through a great crowd to the hotel. A guard was then placed outside his door.

The ex-minister of the interior was one of the coolest men in the crowd. As he was being taken to his room, a correspondent said to him: "De La Torre accuses you of killing his brother."

"As to that," replied Dr. Urrutia, smiling, "I do not think that he will be able to prove it."

Dr. Aureliano Urrutia, who once was Provisional President Huerta's most trusted counsellor in the cabinet, and who as Minister of the Interior was popularly believed to have been the author of many orders for the disappearance of his chief's political enemies, arrived today among the refugees from Mexico City. Dr. Urrutia said he had not been subjected to any overt act of hostility by Gen. Huerta, but had decided that to remain within reach of the Provisional President was to court death. He had been so convinced by testimony of friends.

The former Minister of the Interior declared he had stolen away from the capital in the same way as any other fugitive.

Conditions Bad.

Dr. Urrutia was dressed little better than a laborer and appeared totally unlike the somewhat pompous individual who once was feared almost as much as Huerta himself. His bearing was downcast and he displayed eyidences of the strain he had undergone during the past few weeks. Conditions in Mexico City were described by Dr. Urrutia as bad and growing worse. He declared Huerta would not resign and that he was as stubborn today as ever.

In regard to reports that Gen. Huerta was determined to blow up the National Palace and other public buildings in Mexico City before yielding, Dr. Urrutia professed to have no accurate knowledge, but his opinion was that it was not improbable that Gen. Huerta would do so.

Dr. Urrutia is the man who wrote the ultimatum giving the United States 24 hours to recognize Gen. Huerta and as an alternative declaring that Nelson O'Shaughnessy, American Charge d'Affaires, would be given his passports and war declared. This was approved one night at a cabinet meeting after the mission of John Lind to Mexico had begun. Opposed by Federico Gamboa, then Mexican Minister of Foreign Affairs, it was finally not sent to Washington.

Urrutia, after a perfunctory examination by the American military authorities, was allowed to go.

Prominent Americans Leave.

Mrs. Etta Reyes and her three daughters, all prominent in American society in the Mexican capital, were among the refugees who arrived here today. They felt it necessary to leave Huerta's territory on account of the close surveillance maintained over them for the last several weeks because of their former close friendship with the Maderos.

Not long ago Mrs. Reyes, who is an American, was ordered out of the Republican by the Mexican authorities, but through the influence of the consul general the order was suspended. She was accused of converting her home into a meeting place for Madero supporters. Since she and her daughters have frankly continued their relations with old friends, many of whom were affiliated with the old regime, it was almost impossible for either her or her daughters to appear in the streets without being subjected to espionage.

Friends in Vera Cruz and the capital urged them to get beyond the clutches of Huerta and they were finally induced to enter the American lines.

STATE ENDS CASE AGAINST BECKER

Star Witnesses Placed on the Stand at Last Moment.

DEFENSE BEGINS TODAY

Charles B. Plitt, Jr., Supposed to Have Been Becker's Friend, Gave Damaging Testimony Aagainst Policeman.

New York, May 18.—District Attorney Whitman today completed case against Charles Becker by ing on the witness stand two me. whom he considered his star witnesses—Charles B. Plitt, Jr., the former policeman's friend, companion and press agent, and James Marshall, a negro youth, who said he saw Becker and Jack Rose talking at the "Harlem Conference," which was declared by the court of appeals to have been the real heart of the plan to murder Herman Rosenthal.

The gambler's widow and several other persons also testified before the prosecutor declared his case ended.

Plitt swore that Becker had asked him while on board a train on the way from New York to the death house at Sing Sing prison, following his conviction to kill Jack Rose. Plitt also said Becker had made him carry messages to Jack Rose both before Rosenthal's murder and after Rose was locked up in the tombs charged with having taken part in the crime.

Plitt went fully into the details of his alleged operations as a "stool pigeon" for Becker. He was placed on the stand as the disinterested witness to the "Harlem conference", which the court of appeals said was essential to convict Becker legally as the instigator of the plot that resulted in the killing of the gambler.

Becker warned Plitt before the murder to keep away from Times Square the night it occurred and also to establish an alibi for both Plitt and himself, according to Plitt. Until two days ago Plitt has been considered by Becker's counsel to be one of Becker's best friends, and in fact he made several affidavits calculated to help the former policeman's case. His tes-

INVESTIGATE METHOD USED TO GET EVIDENCE

Detectives in Case Severely Criticised

Judge In Charging Grand Jury Referred to "Certain Detectives" As "An Obstruction to Administration of Justice."

Atlanta, Ga., May 18.—Inquiry into methods used in obtaining evidence in connection with the extraordinary motion for a new trial for Leo. M. Frank was directed here today by Superior Judge Benjamin H. Hill in instructing the Fulton county grand jury.

The course followed by "certain detectives" in the case of the factory superintendent, who is under sentence of death for the murder of Mary Phagan, the 14-year-old factory girl, were severely criticised by Judge Hill. He characterized the work of these "famous sleuths" as "an obstruction to the administration of justice."

"I doubt the wisdom of allowing detectives from another State, whether they be famous or infamous to come here and criticise our officers and our courts. We have no room here for such men—men who come posing as seeking the truth when they are only seeking notoriety and money," said the judge.

The court told the grand jury that various witnesses in the case had repudiated the testimony given by them at the trial of Frank and that some later had made counter-repudiations. Investigation into the charges of bribery and fraud that were made in connection with these statements was asked.

The hearing on the motion to set aside the Frank verdict today was postponed by Judge Hill until Saturday. The postponement was granted upon request of attorneys on both sides. The motion is based upon the claim that Frank's constitutional rights were violated in that he was not present in court when the verdict was returned.

Washington, D. C., May 18.—Secretary of State W. J. Bryan will go to Newbern May 30th for the Home Coming Week celebration, provided the Mexican war situation is such that will warrant him in leaving Washington at that time. The Commoner notified Senator Simmons to this effect today.

HOOD AND THOMAS BOTH CLAIM THE NOMINATION

Goldsboro Man Gives Figures for Each County.

His "Conservative" Estimate Is That He Has Won by a Majority of 1,000 First Choice Votes—Thomas Leads In Pender.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Goldsboro, N. C., May 18.—Hon. J. E. Hood stated today that the reports of the Third Congressional district primary sent out from Craven county were erroneous; that from the best information he can obtain the first choice vote in this district is about as follows:

Wayne, Hood 1,400; Faison, about 250; about 25 for Thomas and 25 for Wallace.

Duplin, Faison about 550 or 600; Hood, 200; Wallace, 100, and Thomas, fifty.

Sampson, out of about 600 votes cast Faison received 200; Hood, 250; Thomas about 15; Wallace about 10.

Jones, 100 first choice for Hood.

Craven, 200 first choice for Hood.

Pamlico, Hood 400 out of 680 cast; others divided between Faison, Thomas and Guion.

Onslow, Thomas leading; Hood about 200 first choice votes, and the others between Faison and Wallace and Guion.

Thomas, Faison, Wallace and Guion carried Pender, with Thomas in the lead, 400 or 500 votes cast, Hood receiving 75 first choice votes.

Wallace carried Carteret by 25 to 50 first choice votes.

From information received, Hood received a very heavy second choice vote in every county in the district in addition to his large first choice vote and from information received up to a late hour tonight, Mr. Hood thinks that with the most conservative estimate he has a lead over all other candidates in the first choice vote by more than 1,000 and is confident that he has been nominated.

NEWBERN SAYS THOMAS WINS.

Democrats There Believe It More Firmly Than Before.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Newbern, N. C., May 18.—Unofficial returns received in Newbern late this afternoon are such that lead Democrats here to more firmly believe that C. R. Thomas secured the nomination for Congress. It was confidently expected that O. H. Guion would lead in Craven county, and it seems that this has been the case. His majority is about 200.

Reports from Sampson and Wayne are to the effect that Faison and Hood polled a strong vote there with Thomas as second choice. Hood also secured a good vote in Pamlico, but Thomas led. Thomas is claiming Pender, while Guion claims the majority of the second choice votes in Carteret and Jones with a number of first choice.

There seems to be no doubt but that the list has dwindled down to Thomas and Hood, and it is believed that the former will lead when the votes are counted.

Another Primary for House.

It is probable that another primary will be necessary in Craven to determine the nominee for representative, as no one of the three candidates, G. V. Richardson, of Dover; D. W. Coppage, of Vanceboro, and G. A. Whitford, of Ernul, secured a majority of votes cast.

THOMAS CARRIES PENDER.

Gets Majority of About Two to One of First Choice Votes.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Burgaw, N. C., May 18.—Hon. Charles R. Thomas makes a clean sweep in Pender county over all other candidates combined. Pender county gives Thomas 650 first choice votes; all others combined 325; and a light second choice vote. Burgaw gives Thomas 130; Faison 35; all others combined 48.

Methodist Conference Re-Considers Action.

IN VANDERBILT CASE

Matter Will Probably Be Taken Up In State of Federal Courts Before Any Change In School Patronized.

Oklahoma City, Okla., May 18.—Acting on the suggestion of Judge N. E. Harris, of Georgia, the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, today re-considered its action of Saturday which virtually severed relations between Vanderbilt University and the church, as a whole, and directed a re-draft of the committee report. This re-draft provides for joint action by commissioners to be named by the General Conference and by the original patronizing conferences in the renewal of litigation in an effort to establish rights which the church claims in the control of the University.

Under a recent ruling of the Tennessee Supreme court the University was, in effect, removed from the direct jurisdiction of the General Conference of the church. Action will now be taken either in State or Federal courts, in behalf of the patronizing conferences, which, it is pointed out, may have legal claims despite the court's ruling.

As adopted Saturday the committee report ordered that whatever rights the church might retain in the University be transferred to the conferences which were the donors of the University to the general conference and provided for the establishment of another school as the representative educational institution of the church.

The Recommendations.

The recommendations which the conference today directed the committee to incorporate in an amended report instructs the Board of Education to continue to exercise authority over the University in the selection of trustees and to safeguard to the ut-

It remained for Joseph G. Brown, president of the Citizens' National Bank, of Raleigh, to nominate R. G. Rhett, of Charleston, permanent chairman of the convention, the nomination being carried unanimously.

Quite an ovation was tendered Milton C. Elliott, of Washington, D. C., secretary of the organization committee, whose father was for many years a high official of the Atlantic Coast Line. Elliott made a talk in which he set forth clearly the various stages that had marked the organization work.

John F. Bruton, of Wilson, named one of the six directors, heads group 2 in class A.

Group 3, including all banks having an aggregate capital and surplus of $60,000 or less, also has 158 banks.

WOULD ARBITRATE TOLLS QUESTION

International Tribunal May Yet Have to Decide.

SENTIMENT IS STRONG

Three Senators Voice Their Belief That Arbitration Only Satisfactory Way to Settle Matter—Means Delay.

Washington, May 18.—With the canal tolls exemption controversy nearing a vote sentiment in the Senate is growing in favor of an effort to substitute for the pending bill a resolution which would provide for the submission of the dispute between the United States and Great Britain to an international tribunal. Although Senators who have discussed this proposal are not sure it will win, they claim many of their colleagues are willing to adopt this course.

It was said tonight that Senator O'Gorman, leader of the forces fighting repeal will not consent to orbitration and the proposal undoubtedly will meet with vigorous opposition among Senators on both sides of the issue.

It was pointed out, however, that before the House passed the repeal bill, President Wilson was willing that the question should be settled by arbitration.

During the day three Senators, two Republicans and one Democrat added their voices to those who see in arbitration the best way out of the difficulty. Senator Sutherland made a vigorous speech on the exemption repeal bill, asserting that arbitration was the only way to settle the dispute.

Senator Williams announced that he would gladly vote for arbitration and Senator Works agreed that this plan was desirable. A resolution providing for submission to arbitration has been introduced by Senator Norris and may come up for consideration before a vote on the repeal itself is demanded.

Republicans Favor Arbitration.

On the Republican side today it developed that Senators Root and Lodge, as well as others who are prominent in the fight for repeal, would favor arbitration.

A two-thirds vote of the Senate would be required to pass an arbitration resolution. Those opposed to the idea pointed out that arbitration would mean a long delay and that in the meantime the canal would be opened and operated and many complications would arise, no matter what the decision of the court might be.

No effort, apparently, has been made on the Democratic side to sound out Senators on the plan.

Democratic leaders who expected a vote on the repeal bill next Monday discovered today that the chance for this hope being realized were growing slim. Senator Jones gave notice today of his intention to speak on the repeal bill on that day and it was understood that other Senators might not decide to speak before Monday.

In the House today, Representative Henry, of Texas, explained the attitude of Secretary Bryan on the free tolls plank of the Baltimore platform.

Senator Sutherland, of Utah, declared that, in the history of free government no such astounding proposition ever before had been presented to a great legislative body as the demand of President Wilson that the Congress should repeal the tolls exemption law, without raising the question whether we were right or wrong.

"To comply with the request," said Senator Sutherland, "would so utterly be subversive of every consideration of self respect that even those who intend to capitulate will raise the question and make a pretense of justifying their action on defensible grounds before acceding to the President's request."

Senator Sutherland said he intended to vote against repeal but he added he was in favor of arbitrating the dispute "because of the differences of opinion prevailing among the greatest thinkers of the country over the question."

"It comes with the very letter of the arbitration which we have so recently renewed since it relates to the interpretation of a treaty," he declared.

Senator Williams, Democrat of Mississippi, said he agreed with Senator Sutherland that the question should be submitted to arbitration and declared he would like to vote for a resolution to submit the matter to an international tribunal.

"If this spirit of submitting this matter to arbitration has been shown here before," said Senator Williams, "and if the contrary spirit had not been voiced here this question in its present form would not now be here at all. All the Senators have to do is to show their faith by their works."

HANS WAGNER.
"The Flying Dutchman."

A group of the White Sox players were standing in front of their hotel at Boston listening to Harry Sutor, the left-hander which pitched by theory. Sutor never having seen Hans Wagner, was explaining how he would pitch to the Flying Dutchman.

"I'd drop two slow curves on the outside corner," he ejaculated. "He'd probably foul one. Then I'd shoot two high and outside, wasting them. Then he'd expect me to come back with a slow twister on the out corner and I'd cross him with a fast one."

Cole, a busher infielder, who had been listening, turned suddenly, sprinted across the street and stood looking upward an instant. With hanging head and dejected air he strolled back.

"What's the matter?" asked Sutor. "What were you doing?"

"I was chasing that fast one you pitched to Wagner," replied Cole.

State vs. Rogers and McCrackin.

Counsel will argue Tuesday morning in the Supreme court the appeal in the case of State vs. Rogers & McCrackin, from Haywood county in which the defendants, who were officers of the law, are under sentence of 18 months on the roads each for the killing of Lee Wells at a school entertainment near Clyde, N. C. Wells rode up to the school house about 10 o'clock at night and Rogers, county constable, had deputized McCrackin to help him arrest Wells on some petty charge. They held him up with revolvers and in the exchange of shots McKenzie was badly wounded and Wells was so wounded that he fell from his horse and soon died after riding about 50 yards away.

Another State appeal is State vs. Wallace Ray, from Madison county, in which Ray is under sentence for the killing of Greeley Hensley at Shelton Laurel, the plea being that the killing was in self defense.

PELLAGRA RESPONSIBLE FOR SUICIDE IN BLADEN

Disease Had Affected Mind of Miss Berry, Its Victim.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Clarkton, N. C., May 18.—Pellagra was responsible for the mental condition of Miss Flora Cleveland Perry, which led her to commit suicide at the home of her parents near Rosindale a few days ago, according to a statement made by Dr. Edward J. Wood, of Wilmington, her physician. The physician's statement, dated May 12, follows:

"Miss Flora Cleveland Perry was under my care at the time of her untimely death from suicide. At her family's request I am making this statement. The cause of her mental derangement which resulted in this insane act was pellagra from which she suffered for two years or longer before her death. I saw her on April 23rd and gave treatment. At that time she was very despondent but never manifested any indications of such a tendancy. There can be no doubt that he mental disease was merely a part of the pellagrous infection. Such a termination is by no means uncommon though it has not occurred in this country as much as in Europe.

Mrs. Edwards was 70 years old and was the widow of the late Hardy Edwards, of this county, and was ell known and loved throughout the county for her many excellent qualties. She has been ill for some time past and while the death was not entirely unexpected, it came as a great shock to her many friends. The funeral took place this afternoon in the family burying ground near the home and was largely attended.

DEPUTY CRONLY'S WAY.

How He Scared a Negro Into Paying Poll Tax—A Born Collector.

In speaking of the statement of taxes collected, which he submitted yesterday to the commissioners, Office Deputy Cronly told the board that hundreds of negroes, floaters, would list and before tax paying time passed, would be gone to other parts; that many enlisted under one name and worked under another to dodge payment. In some factories they work under numbers instead of names, and it is most difficult to catch them. Thus is it accounted for largely, that there are so many hundred uncollected polls.

One negro from the country called yesterday to list his 1914 tax. He unluckily wandered into Deputy Cronly's web—and was lost. "Here, you begar, you haven't paid your 1913 tax yet, and now you come to list for another year. Gimme two dollars quick before I serve you with this alias capias adtestificandum," and the negro had $2 out and paid over to the fiercely-frowning deputy, before he knew what he was doing. The deputy was shooting at a venture and found the mark.

Whereupon it was the opinion that he was a born collector and that he had all other tax collectors beaten by a number of standard city blocks.

GRUESOME JEST PULLED OFF IN EDGECOMBE

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Tarboro, N. C., May 18.—The report comes up from Macclesfield, a small town in this county, today, that may lead to trouble for the perpetrators of the gruesome jest.

It appears that early Saturday morning a negro man of that vicinity was going toward the town when he discovered the bodies of a negro man and little girl lying under a clump of trees on the ground by the side of the road near a negro cemetery. He did noa stop to investigate but hastened to the store of Corbett & Moore and related the circumstances. A number of white men hastened to the scene and found that during Friday night the bodies had been disinterred from their graves and that the left hand had been taken from the body of the man and the trunk mutilated in numerous other places.

The body of the girl had not been touched apparently, so it is thought she was dug up by mistake. The ghouls had left the cadavers on the scene of their job and as the news spread it created quite a commotion in the little place. The negroes were terribly frightened and the authorities are conducting the strictest investigation of the matter. The bodies were re-buried by Messrs. Corbett and Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Fore, of Richmond, Va., are visiting Mr. Fore's sister, Mrs. E. S. Lathrop, No. 213 North Fifth street.

ECZEMA ITCHED FOR 20 YEARS—RESINOL CURED

Dec. 8, 1913: "I had eczema for 20 years. It started on me when I was but 13 years old and am now 34, and have suffered all these years. It started with small pimples all over my face, arms and hands. My hands would swell up so that I could not shut them, and I was almost blind. It would itch, then burn, and I had to keep the affected parts wrapped up so that I would not scratch them. I couldn't sleep at all—just walked the floor a whole night.

"I have tried many different remedies, and spent a large sum of money, but had no relief. Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment were recommended to me. They gave me great relief after the third application, and after using four jars of Resinol Ointment and three cakes of Resinol Soap, I am completely cured." (Signed) Mrs. H. E. Fleager, Box 13, Dauphin, Pa.

The gunboat then was shelling the town. On the Seminole's homeward voyage she again called at Puerta Plata and this time was warned by the United States cruiser Washington not to enter. Passengers were brought on board by the cruiser's boats.

Shipman, is a candidate for circuit judge in the Sixteenth judicial district in Mississippi, where he has been engaged in the practice of his profession for the past ten years. The Purvis (Miss.) Booster, one of the papers published in his district, has this to say of him:

"He is eminently qualified, having been admitted to the bar and practised law in four different States during the last several years, and being a hard student, with the best law library in territory to refer to, we unhesitatingly claim that he is one of the best posted men in the district, and last but not least by any means, he is a fair, square, honorable gentlemen who will stay sober and see that the poorest man in the district gets the same chance in his court as is allowed the millionaire. We predict a complete walkover for him, because the people of the district are anxious for a man of his calibre on the bench."

Get in the unit class for Wilmington.

We are more convinced than ever that the kee in Yankee is the key to the situation in Mexico.

Says a contemporary: 'Women rarely use the figure of speeh." However, don't they use the sum total?

If anybody can tell us who put the kee in Yankee he can tell us who holds the key to the situation in Mexico.

Kansas produced such a large crop of wheat she called for 40,000 harvest hands. Calamity howlers should at once take steps to inform each soldier of the Army of the Unemployed.

Those candidates who thought the Seventh and the Ninth districts would like to have new Congressmen, seem to have been mistaken about the general satisfaction in the district.

The best citizen a city or country can have is the home owner. The ferment that is going on in Mexico is due to the fact that there are few land and home owners in that big country.

A one-horse town may be able to explain that everybody in it has an automobile except one man who is keping the family horse to graze around the house so it won't be necessary for him to bother with a lawn mower.

According to government experts, the grain prospects in the United States are such that there will be nearly 10 bushels of wheat for every man, woman and child in this country. Those of us who haven't raised our ten bushels have our ten to get.

Tom Watson, the red headed Georgian who is so perniciously aggressive, has again been indicted for misuse of the mails. As a free lance Tom insists on being incorrigible and frequently takes liberties which every body won't stand for all the time.

One of the Mexican peace envoys is a wealthy man who has brought his four beautiful daughters along for a sight-seeing trip to the United States. American girls are refraining from taking a trip through Mexico for fear they would 'see sights" everywhere they went.

Representative Richmon Pearson Hobson is confident that the House will adopt his constitutional amendment providing for nation-wide prohibition. He probobly knows that a great many Congressmen who take a drink themselves wouldn't dare vote like they drink.

The State of Georgia has to borrow $300,000 with which to tide over expenses till September. For several years the indications have been that Georgia has to cut down expenses, else discover some way of getting more money out of the people to support the State government.

Tomorrow Charlotte will have an elaborate celebration of the Twentieth of May, because that is recognized as the date of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence. Wilmington celebrates the 20th of May every year, or at least recognizes it in the way of making it the occasion of the military outing of the Wilmington Light Infantry.

The Wilmington stride seems to puzzle those who come here and observe the plain fact that Wilmington is going some. Wilmington is going ahead because there are several potential resources upon which to depend, and because the people have confidence in the city which commands North Carolina's ocean outlet to the trade of the world.

A New Jersey farmer claims that a black snake coiled itself around the handle of his axe and tried to hit him with it during the struggle that ensued for possession of the implement. A great many people who look on that Jerseyite as a prevaricator will read Col. Ted Roosevelt's South American snake stories and regard them as a marvelous contribution to the snakeology of the world.

THE NEWSPAPER FIELD.

Referring to several newspaper changes and some suspensions in North Carolina within the past few weeks, the Reidsville Review is moved to observe:

"What's ailing the newspapers of the State? A few days ago we noted the suspension of Webster's Weekly. Last week the State Journal did likewise. The Charlotte Daily Chronicle has given up the ghost, having been absorbed by The News. The average newspaper does not have smooth sailing by a jug full."

Referring to what The Review says, the Winston-Salem Sentinel adds:

"Few people realize what it costs to conduct a newspaper. With many of them it is a constantly losing proposition and the only wonder is that more of them do not have to suspend publication. The fact that they do not is a tribute to the financial ability of their proprietors and the loyal support of their friends."

All the papers which have suspended, or been absorbed by other papers, were meritorious publications, but as business enterprises they failed to meet with the support that would warrant their continuance. The fact is, the newspaper field is circumscribed, and there is overproduction of papers just as there is of other products for which there is a limited demand There are just so many possible subscribers and advertisers in a community, based on the population within the area to be supplied, so that there is lack of support for more than one paper of a class, and where that patronage is divided there is not enough business for two, hence nothing but hard work and no pay for the publishers.

Now and then some enterprising persons think the field isn't covered or the demand is not fully met, so they invest in a plant and launch a paper without having carefully considered the consequences to themselves or to other publishers in the same locality. Either they, or the other publishers, sooner or later, have to retire from an overcrowded field, and generally it is the new venture that fails to find a foothold that warrants all the efforts and expense that a newspaper, either weekly or daily, entails. Generally, experienced publishers carefully look over the field and stay out of it, while others, with more nerve than experience, think the water is fine and so come on in.

It is merely a business mistake to invest money in a paper under the idea that it will take like hot cakes and make a mint of money. Even where a limited demand for a paper is met, a publisher frequently overreaches himself in getting out a better paper than the field warrants, and since that is expensive and more money is paid out than can possibly come in, there is either failure or relapse to a hand to mouth existence.

In the first place, people should not start a paper unless there is a well-defined demand for it in a field that can be counted upon to stand up to the demand. The desire to start a paper and create the demand for it will meet with disaster, for few newspaper men ever get out half as good a paper as they imagined they could run, and no publishers are getting out such a paper as they would like to publish. They have to hold in their horns and do the best they can with the support they get or can get by hard work and losts of expense.

Getting subscribers and getting the money from them is a business proposition, and it is an expensive piece of business, even at its best. It costs something to collect money on subscriptions and keep up circulation, and the publisher who thinks that subscriptions will roll in and the cash will roll right in with them, has another think coming to him. Even if there is a demand for his paper, he finds out that he has to maintain a good, and expensive system for getting the cash on demand.

The general public demand for papers these times is for newspapers, with occasional needs for trades papers in large industrial fields, but they have to be large. There is little or no demand for merely political papers, for the public can get all the politics it wants through the newspapers of the times. Therefore, with the greatest demand for newspapers that field is largest, and with better mail facilities out of the larger cities there is a constantly lessening demand for papers of the weekly class. When a publisher meets the local demand or that in his circumscribed territory, the jig is up. A community really does itself harm when it tries to support more papers than it is able to sustain. One good paper in a town does it more good than two or three papers poorly supported.

PUBLIC UTILITY OWNERSHIP.

If the Crosser bill now before Congress, or rather under consideration before the House committee on the District of Columbia, becomes a law, the Government will go into the street car business in Washington. The Crosser bill provides for the purchase of all the street car systems in Washington, extending into the District of Columbia and territory contiguous to the National Captial. Experts for and against the proposition have been heard during the past few days, but it is not likely the committee will report its findings during this session of Congress.

Probably the most interesting part of the proceedings on the Crosser bill occurred when the committee heard Mr. Thomas McCarter, president of the Public Service Commission of New Jersey, corresponding to the North Carolina Corporation Commission, except that it probably has larger powers. Surprise is expressed that the head of the Jersey commission should oppose municipal ownership, but he did so and took strong grounds against government ownership of utilities.

Mr. McCarter said he did not own a share of stock in any District of Columbia street railway corporation, but declared that he was present because he conceived it his duty to utter a word of warning against the danger of the experiment which the Crosser bill proposes. As a good citizen, with the welfare of the whole country at heart, he felt bound to speak.

One of the members of the committee asked him if he thought it was unpatriotic to have established the parcel post by the government. He declared that he was not sure that it wasn't unpatriotic, "if it results in the ruin of the express companies." He pointed out that government and municipal ownership simply meant a form of competition that would put private owners out of business. He pronounced the idea un-American, and expressed the opinion that it means bereaucracy on a large scale. If carried out throughout the country, he said, it would add an army of 600,000 to 700,000 municipal offices to the present payrolls of the cities of America.

CHANCE TO HONOR GAILLARD.

The women of South Carolina are urging the government to change the name of the Culebra Cut, Panama Canal, to Gaillard Cut, in honor of the lamented Captain Gaillard, the distinguished South Carolinian who accomplished the great work as a member of the United States engineer corps. That ought to be done as a memorial to a most capable officer whose health was undermined by the arduous service and constant exposure to a tropical climate heroically endured by him during the immense constructive work which was so thoroughly done under his supervision and by means of his knowledge and skill as an engineer.

Captain Gaillard's death indeed was one of the notable sacrifices which the engineer corps made in accomplishing in record time an engineering feat of the first magnitude. How much more significance there would be in Gaillard Cut than could ever be conveyed by "Culebra" as it pronounced "Coolabra." Gaillard is pronounced "Galyard," and is an old family name that is honored in both the Carolinas where it has borne the mark of distinction from time immemorial.

We don't think it ought to require much persuasion to induce the Washington authorities to accede to the reasonable request of the splendid women of South Carolina. It is hoped North Carolina's Senators and Representatives in Congress will join those of South Carolina in every possible way to have the name of Gaillard forever perpetuated at Culebra which, under all circumstances, will stand as a monument to his genius, his skill and his devotion to duty.

WIRELESS TELEPHONES IN THE STORES.

A few days ago The Star commented on the announcement of the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company that Mr. Marconi had perfected his apparatus for telephoning at a distance without wires, and it is believed that he has met such success that practical use of wireless telephones is to be one of the greatest achievements of the age. It will be classed along with wireless telegraphy as a scientific achievement, but it will be a greater one because of the much larger field to be covered.

Wireless telephony already had passed the experimental and amusement stage, long before Marconi's reassuring announcement last week, and it is a fact that practical use of wireless telephones in a limited way had been demonstrated. The Wanamaker stores in New York and Philadelphia have been experimenting with wireless 'phones in the company's business houses in those two cities, and with such satisfactory results that a complete system is to be installed in both stores. The Wanamaker establishment's experiments have demonstrated that it works fully as satisfactorily as the wire and pole service, and mercantile establishments, factories and large plants will soon install wireless service and thus greatly add to the convenience and facilities for doing business. The world goes right on ahead.

When Aguinaldo was once given to understand that he had to settle himself and give the Phillipupines a rest, he quieted down and nothing now is heard of him as an agitator and disturber. No Doubt several Mexicans have to be put through the same course, and there is no better man to give them the lesson than General Fred Funston who straightened out things in the Phillippines and is now waiting in Mexico for the word "go."

CURRENT COMMENT.

The Wake county Progressives polled 1,800 votes in this county despite almost insurmountable obstacles. They again are calling for Colonel Roosevelt, whose nomination will insure another period of Democracy.—Raleigh Times.

Mr. J. I. Townsend, of Ten Mile, was in town this morning, bringing a wagon load of home-grown meat for sale. Mr. Townsend is one of the many Robesonians who believe in raising all a man needs, and then some, at home. He says he killed over 7,000 pounds of pork last winter. Mr. Townsend is the type of farmer that doesn't have to buy things on fall time and pay two prices for them. The farmer who farms right is the happiest and most independent man in the world.—Lumberton Robesonian.

The State Board of Health reports returns of over 7,000 birth and death certificates during the month of April. This would indicate a yearly rate of over 85,000. That would represent 80 per cent. of all the births and deaths occurring in North Carolina. These returns are made in compliance with the vital statistics law passed by the last Legislature and the readiness with which the officials are observing it indicates that it is a popular law. The benefits seem to have come into public appreciation, there having sprung up a recognition of the importance of the registered birth certificate in matters of inheritance. The Board of Health believes North Carolina will be soon the best registration State south of the Ohio river. That this is probably to be so, is due largely to the alertness of the county superintendents of public health.—Charlotte Observer.

For want of something better the earth will continue to be our symbol of the utmost solidity, but we are reminded at frequent intervals that not the sea only but the land, and the very mountains, are treacherous. The destruction of life and property on the slopes of Mount Etna are painfully suggestive of the appalling disasters at Messina, San Francisco and Mount Pelee. Happily this last disaster is of less extent than the three mentioned, but it is severe enough to give the world a shock and to remind mankind how many chances are taken for the sake of the living that can be got from trade and the culture of the soil. The sides of volcanoes, the regions peculiarly subject to earthquakes, and the margins of rivers that overflow nearly every year, are all the homes of men and women and the scenes of their industries.—Philadelphia Record.

ISSUE BONDS AND WATCH THE INTEREST ON THEM GROW.

To The Editor of The Star:

"We need what we need when we need it!" An old common-place in economics is that anything not needed is dear at any price. The $1.98 allurement on a $2 value has no charm for the level headed trader if he does not need the goods. Upon this hypothesis this argument against the issue of bonds for the purchase of docks is based.

Two hundred thousand at 4 per cent per annum means $8,000 interest to be paid by the taxpayers. If these bonds mature in twenty years the interest figures out $160,000 in that time. We will yet owe the $200,000 and own the docks.

It is claimed by those favoring this bond issue that the rentals will pay the interest on the bonds. How is this assumption to be proved in the face of positive statements by citizens, well qualified to consider this subject, that investments in wharf and terminal property have not been profitable.

There is no city on the Atlantic or Gulf coast that is more thoroughly equipped with water terminals than is Wilmington. The railroads have every facility for handling all the business coming to the port, or that is likely to come, for interior distribution. The Champion Compress and Warehouse Company can take care of considerably more business than is at present offered.

The city is burdened with a large bonded debt at present for subscriptions to enterprises that are not contributing the benefits which were expected to accrue to the city's prosperity. The question naturally arises upon what more than a speculative opinion can the prosperity of the city be advanced by the purchase of docks? Certainly there is nothing in sight to justify the venture. The Panama Canal? Well where do we see individual effort on the part of our citizens to secure benefits from that source?

It would seem that a bond issue for the construction of a levee to protect the city hall from an overflow from the river would be about as well warranted an investment on the part of our citizens as the project now before them.

For essentials let us vote for all the bonds that may be necessary; such, for instance, as a bridge connecting Wilmington with the mainland to the West of us. Incidentally for completing the internal improvements, which, by the way, come under another heading.

Faithfully yours,
GEO. P. COTCHETT.

MR. COWPER REPLIES TO MR. WRIGHT.

The Star yesterday received from Mr. G. V. Cowper, of Kinston, chairman of the Lenoir County Democratic Executive Committee, the following, which is copy of a letter written by him to Mr. I. C. Wright, of Clinton, and which is self-explanatory:

"May 16, 1914.

"Mr. Isaac C. Wright, Attorney, Clinton, N. C.

"My dear Wright: I received your telegram of the 15th on yesterday afternoon upon my return to my office from an automobile trip in the country, as follows:

"Yesterday's Wilmington Star looks like you tried to create impression I have withdrawn from judgeship race. I told you and wrote that I would not enter Lenoir and campaign against Judge Allen while he was away holding court. I am in race to win but not by creating false impression on voters. Please correct this in The Star. ISAAC C. WRIGHT."

I immediately wired you as follows:

"Have authorized no statement for publication as to your candidacy.
"G. V. COWPER."

This morning I received copy of letter written by you to the Wilmington Star in which you attribute to me a statement from the Kinston correspondence. It is very evident that you are laboring under an erroneous conclusion in assuming that I have made or authorized any statement concerning your candidacy for the judgeship. As a matter of fact I have never said one word either for publication or otherwise in reference to the matter. On Thursday of this week there appeared in our daily paper a statement which purported on its face to be information from Mr. John G. Dawson, secretary of our executive committee, to the effect merely that all known candidates who were to be voted on in our county primary had qualified except you, but I knew nothing of that statement until I saw it in the paper. I was away from Kinston practically all of that day returning late in the afternoon. I received the letter containing your explanation of your failure to qualify in Lenoir, on the same afternoon, and after our daily paper had appeared containing the statement above referred to. You, therefore, see that neither I nor any one connected with the Democratic Executive Committee of Lenoir county has done you the slightest injustice in this matter, and it is simply your mistake in assuming it.

Your telegram contains the phrase, "creating false impressions on voters," and your note to me attached to copy of letter to Wilmington Star contains the statement, "You ought not to use it to knife me." While I am sure that you know me too well to apply these terms either directly or indirectly to any conduct of mine, yet as you have published one of these statements I wish to say that they are offensive, and it becomes your duty to correct them in so far as you can do so. While I have very vigorously supported Judge Allen in this contest, my efforts in his behalf have been characterized by no unfairness, nor the slightest reflection upon any other candidate. And as chairman of the executive committee of this county, I have scrupulously seen to it that each candidate had an open field in our primary.

I trust and believe that this letter will satisfy you that you have jumped to an erroneous conclusion.

Yours very truly,
G. V. COWPER.

EASILY DECIDED

This Question Should be Answered Easily by Wilmington People.

Which is wiser—to have confidence in the opinions of your fellow-citizens, of people you know, or depend on statements made by utter strangers residing in far-away places? Read the following:

W. L. Benson, 620 S. Second St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "My back ached nearly all the time and I couldn't straighten after stooping or lifting without having a sharp pain in my loins. Mornings when I got up, I was very lame and sore and I noticed that the kidney secretions contained sediment. Soon after I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Bellamy's Drug Store, I felt better in every way, and it was not long before I was enjoying the best of health. My advice to anyone suffering from kidney complaint is to try Doan's Kidney Pills.

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Benson had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

VOTE AGAINST BONDS!

A public improvement, like a public tax, is justified only by necessity.

Public improvement is supported by taxation, and unless the benefits exceed the burden, is not warranted.

Every community aspires to the reputation of being progressive, but true progress is intelligent discrimination between NOSTRUMS and NECTARS.

A propositaion may be ever so sound in principle and ever so false in expediency.

The proposition for the city, UNDER PRESENT CONDITIONS, to sell bonds to acquire public terminals is not supported by authoritative facts and sound reasons.

The contention of the bond advocates, that the city probably would not buy terminal property for "five years," is an admission that there is no PRESENT NEED for this facility, and the desperate effort to carry the bonds must be explained by other than public necessity.

We favor any and every public measure making for the common welfare, whether it be municipal docks, street improvements, or what not, but demand that every proposition rest on intrinsic merit and public necessity.

The present condition of the city's finances does not justify increase in the public debt or tax rate, unless it can be affirmatively shown that the need is IMPERATIVE.

Vote against bonds, and see that your ballot is safely Deposited!

The Day of Fake Advertising is Passing

As a matter of self-protection, as well as protection of the public, we are downright glad to see the dawn of honest advertising.

The store that has honest merchandise at right prices need not hesitate to tell the truth.

For Example, we never had the least difficulty in advertising Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes for men. They contain so much that is superlatively good that the plain truth about them is the simplest kind of a story.

But after all they tell their own story better than cold type can tell it. If you, Mr. Man, are not familiar with that story and the clothes that tell it, don't you wait another day to hear it.

Incidentally, the Spring and Summer showing of Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes is ready. To be found here exclusively.

DIOCESAN COUNCIL MAKES FINE PROGRESS

Delegates Elected to the Provincial Synod.

Two Splendid Addresses at St. James Last Night—Women to Vote In Parishes—Bishop Strange Takes Active Part.

With two splendid and inspiring addresses last evening, by Rev. Geo. W. Lay, rector of St. Mary's school at Raleigh, and Rev. Homer W. Starr, rector of the Church of the Cross, at Chapel Hill, the Diocesan Council of East Carolina, now in annual session at St. James Episcopal church, closed a day that was marked by unusual activitiy in the dispatch of business. The council will end its meetings today and the programme of exercises as outlined will be devoted especially to the missionary work of the church. The conciliar sermon was preached Sunday morning by Rev. B. F. Huske, of Newbern, and Sunday night by Rev. Wm. E. Gardner, of New York, secretary of the Board of Religious Education.

The services Sunday were attended by large congregations and there was also a large congregation last night. The business sessions are confined more strictly to the business of the church, and have been attended only by the official representatives of the church. Bishop Strange was in the chancel last night and his many friends are delighted to know that he is well enough to take an active part in the proceedings of the council.

"The Purpose and Value of Religious Education" was the subject of a most inspiring address last night by Dr. Lay. The speaker stated that he would not dwell on the value of education as he recognized the fact that everyone knew that. He discussed in a most interesting way the purpose of education dividing his subject into three heads. The first, he said, is to give knowledge; the second, is power or the ability to use knowledge, and the third, is character or the ability to use knowledge in the right way.

Mr. Starr, who is better known as the chaplain at Chapel Hill, showed clearly the needs of his parish. Plans for a new church were exhibited. He discussed most interestingly his work among the University boys and the great good that is being accomplished.

Sessions Yesterday.

The business meeting was opened yesterday morning at 10 o'clock with devotional services, conducted by Rev. Dr. Milton. After the singinig of several hymns and a prayer service Dr. Milton made a forceful address in the nature of a meditation taking as his subject, "The Cross the Plus Sign of Our Minus Lives.' The three things that our lives most lack, he stated, are holiness, vision and power. He showed how the cross is able to supply all these deficiencies.

Committee Appointed.

Following the devotional service Rt. Rev. Robert Strange, bishop of the diocese, called the council to order, following which the different committees were appointed, as follows:

Canons—Rev. W. E. Cox, chairman; Dr. W. H. Milton and Rev. J. H. Dickinson, and Maj. B. R. Huske and Mr. W. D. Pruden.

State of the Church—Rev. T. P. Noe, chairman; Rev. C. A. Ashby, Rev. N. C. Duncan, Dr. W. H. Hardison and Mr. R. R. Cotten.

Relations to the General Convention—Rev. W. E. Cox, chairman, and Rev. W. R. Noe and Mr. William Calder.

New Parishes—Rev. C. D. Malone, chairman, and Messrs. J. H. Burriss and J. L. Hazelhurst.

General Clergy Relief Fund—Rev. J. H. Griffith, chairman; Rev. W. R. Noe, Rev. M. E. Bethea and Messrs. J. G. Bragaw, Jr., and D. H. Jones.

Memorial—Rev. Dr. R. B. Drane, chairman, and Hon. F. D. Winston.

Examining Chaplains—Rev. Nathaniel Harding, chairman; Rev. Dr. R. B. Drane, Rev. Dr. Wm. H. Milton and Rev. T. P. Noe.

Rev. Dr. Drane, who was elected president of the council at the organization meeting Saturday night, was then called to the chair. Before taking up the routine business a telegram of affectionate remembrance was sent to Rev. Nathaniel Harding, of Washington, N. C., who has served for several years as president of the council and who was unable to attend this session.

New Editor for Herald.

Rev. C. P. Parker, of Hertford, was elected as editor and business manager of the Mission Herald, which is published in the interest of missions. Rev. Dr. Milton as editor and Rev. Mr. Cox as business manager, have served most acceptably for some time but on account of other duties and also because they felt that it was best for the interests of the church they wished to turn the work over to other hands. The council is under deep obligation to them for the splendid and efficient work which they have done.

Women Allowed to Vote.

An amendment to the constitution giving women the right to vote in parish elections was adopted by an overwhelming majority. This was proposed at the last meeting of the council but according to the constitution had to lie over a year before its final adoption.

The need of more chaplains in the navy was discussed, following which resolutions endorsing the employment of more ministers for this work were adopted and the secretary was instructed to send copies to members in Congress from this State.

The council also passed a resolution giving its consent to be included in the organization of the fourth province.

Delegates to Synod.

Delegates to the primary Provincial Synod were elected as follows: Clerical, Revs. Wm. H. Milton, of Wilmington; B. F. Huske, of Newbern; J. H. Griffith, of Kinston; J. H. Dickinsong, of Goldsboro. The following laymen were elected: George B. Elliott, Esq., of Wilmington; Maj. B. R. Huske, of Fayetteville; J. G. Bragaw, Jr., of Washington; William Dunn, Jr., of Newbern.

The following were elected as alternates: Clerical, Revs. C. A. Ashby, of Elizabeth City; H. Alligood, Bellhaven; J. F. Johnston, of Creswell; A. Boogher, of Fayetteville. Laymen, Messrs. R. R. Cotten, of Bruce; W. G. Gaither, of Hertford; F. G. Jacocks, of Windsor, and Dr. W. C. Galloway, of Wilmington.

Mr. Geo. C. Royal, of Goldsboro, trustee of St. Mary's at Raleigh, made the annual report of the school which showed that it has made fine progress during the year in the way of increased equipment, and has an increased number of teachers and students. Upon invitation Rev. Geo. W. Lay addressed the council on the work being done by the school.

Trustees for three years for the University of the South at Sewanee, Tenn., were elected as follows: Rev. Thos. P. Noe and Messrs. Wilson G. Lamb, of Williamston, and William Dunn, Jr., of Newbern.

Women's Meetings.

The meeting of the women's organizations opened yesterday morning at 10 o'clock with an informal session of the Sanctuary Guilds and Daughters of the King. Following this meeting there was a conference of the Parochial societies of the diocese which was called to order by the president of the Wilmington convocation, Mrs. N. N. Davis.

After the devotional service consisting of the singing of a hymn and prayers, Mrs. M. F. H. Gouverneur welcomed the visiting members. Mrs. B. F. Cox, of Winterville, responded for the delegates. The calling of the roll showed that 31 societies were represented. Mrs. R. C. Bridger, of Winterville, read a most interesting and instructive paper, "What We Most Lack and How Can We Best Further the Life and Growth of the Parochial Societies." An effective and inspiring paper entitled, "Prayer As a Missionary Force," written by Mrs. Frank Hughes, of Newbern, was read by Mrs. H. M. Bonner, also of Newbern. "The Value of Helpful Mission Study" was the subject of a helpful paper by Miss Eliza Meares.

It was a great pleasure to have present at the meeting Mrs. Alexander, of Hagerstown, Md., who gave some interesting experiences of study classes which she has held. The summer conferences at Silver Bay and at Blue Ridge, N. C., were discussed and it was urged that each society have a representative at one or the other, if possible.

Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock the Girls' Friendly societies had a very helpful and interesting meeting.

At 4 o'clock the Junior Auxiliary held a meeting which was presided over by Mrs. F. R. Rose, of Fayetteville. It was a great pleasure to have present at this meeting Mrs. J. B. Gibble, of Burlington, a former secretary of the organization.

At 5 o'clock St. Mary's Guild of St. James parish entertained the entire council at a garden party on the lawn of the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh MacRae, No. 713 Market street.

Programme for Today.

This morning at 10 o'clock the annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary will be held in the parish house of St. James. At 3:30 o'clock this afternoon a mystery play entitled, "Two Little Pilgrims and the Book Beloved' will be given by the children of St. James parish.

At 5 o'clock the visiting delegates to the council will take cars to the beach and tea will be served at the Carolina Yacht Club.

Sunday Services.

The conciliar sermon was preached Sunday morning by Rev. B. F. Huske, of Newbern. He took as his subject, "The Task of the Church." It was a stirring appeal to the need for larger activities and a broader view. It was heard by a congregation that filled the large auditorium of the church to its utmost capacity.

Sunday night Rev. Dr. Wm. E. Gardner, of New York, secretary of the Board of Religious Education, made a striking address on his work. It was a clear and simple outline of the work that the Episcopal church is trying to do along this line by using systematic efforts. A large congregation was also present on this occasion.

WILL CELEBRATE THE DAY

Wilmington Will Observe May Twentieth Quite Generally—W. L. I. and Juniors to Take Part.

Wilmington will celebrate tomorrow, May Twentieth, the anniversary of the signing of the first declaration of independence, at Charlotte, quite generally. The two leading events of the day will be the annual outings of the Juniors at Carolina Beach and of the Wilmington Light Infantry at Wrightsville Beach. Banks will be closed and Sunday hours observed at the post office. Business houses will probably pay heed to the day's significance.

The Juniors will march at 8 o'clck to St. James' Episcopal churchyard, where they will decorate the grave of Cornelius Harnett and hear again the Mecklenburg Declaration of independence read. Mr. John J. Blair will make a brief address. They will then embark on the Wilmington and go to the beach, leaving at 9:30., A second boat will leave at 2:30 and a third at 7:30, the return being made at 10:30 tomorrow night.

At the beach there will be music by West's band, dancing and a good time generally, and dinner will not be overlooked. Tickets may be purchased at several different places now. Many have already been sold.

The annual outing of the W. L. I. includes the usual competitive shoot, in which active and reserve corps members will participate. There will also be the competitive drill on the floor of Lumina. Dinner will be enjoyed in picnic style on the beach.

The shoot will be held in the forenoon. The active members will compete for a medal awarded to the man making the highest score, and the five making the highest score will compete against five members of the reserve corps, for a medal to go to the team making the highest score.

The drill will take place in the early evening, only active members taking part and a medal will be awarded to him who shows up as the best all around and most perfectly drilled soldier. A dance will finish the day. Lumina will be decorated gaily and a happy time is in prospect. Wilmington people will divide up, as usual, some going to Wrightsville Beach and others to Carolina.

Miss Perdew Won Prize.

Miss Minnie Louise Perdew was "No. 7,777" in the essay contest for the statue of Washington offered by Wilder & Metts, realty agents, for the best essay on the subject of the Panama Canal, announcement was made yesterday. Miss Perdew is in the eighth grade at the Hemenway school. The three essays considered next best were those of Miss Mary Grace McVey, eighth grade in the Union school; Richard Thigpen, eighth grade Hemenway, and Miss Janie Beatty, of the same school and grade. Miss Perdew is only 14 years old, but the young lady is one of the brighttest in the schools. Once before she won in a contest, when A. W. Pate & Co., real estate firm, offered a prize in connection with Carolina Beach.

SHERIFF MAKES REPORT

Commissioners Hold Recess Meeting and Consider Several Matters—June Jury Drawn.

The county commissioners yesterday afternoon resumed the session adjourned last Monday, received the sheriff's report on tax collections, drew the jury for the June term of court and handled a few other matters. Chairman Willard and Commissioners Yopp and Kerr were present, with the county attorney, W. P. Stacy, Esq., Auditor Orrell and Clerk Williams.

The sheriff's statement was ordered referred to Auditor Orrell and Commissioner L. W. Moore, with instructions to report back at the next regular meeting. It shows that the sheriff has collected a grand total of $211,363.62. Of this amount $42,420 represents school fund collections; $27,433 special school collections; $46,807 general county fund; $1,498.79 poor fund; $10,933 road bond sinking fund; bridge fund $19,450 for Northeast river; hospital fund, $9,128; health department fund, $7,279. The total polls collected is 4,042. There are 1,331 insolvent polls. The schedule B taxes, licenses, etc., amounts to $15,318 this year, which is an increase of some $4,000 over last year.

Other items are: Tax on property listed by sheriff, $2,277; listed by auditor, $225; delinquents' tax collected, $1,547; 1912 taxes, $618; abatements, $1,962; property sold, $2,525; insolvents, $5,126; corporation tax direct to State, $6,701.

In connection with the bridge fund, it is stated that there is still a balance of about $10,000 due on the bridge and that the board intends to do what it can to keep this from operating toward increasing the tax rate this year, but it may happen that it will. The county has found it a heavy load to carry this $30,000 in a single year.

Jury for June Court.

The jury for the approaching term of Superior court, June 15, is as follows:

First Week—R. W. Meeks, M. T. Sellers, W. H. Harrison, R. H. Benson, D. S. Watkins, W. R. Smith, Ed Taylor, W. C. Moore, Alfred Wilson, C. N. Rehder, F. O. Montgomery, P. S. Taylor, E. J. Carroll, G. R. Parker, R. B. Shepard, T. J. Ram, W. S. Bunting, W. H. Schaefer, Willie Fisher, J. F. Smith, C. L. Williamson, A. J. Moore, Jr., C. K. Davis, A. B. VanBuren, L. H. Shaw, R. F. Beasley, Marshall Shrier, A. T. Parker, Ed L. Davis, J. D. Garrison, J. C. Stewart, J. M. Johnson, Eugene Johnson, L. F. Pittman, W. L. Moore, B. C. McKeithan.

Second Week—H. L. Sanders, B. R. Wilson, Paul R. Jordan, Samuel Martin, F. M. Johnson, G. W. Reynolds, C. F. Johnson, Hunter Watson, R. E. Wilkins, R. W. Hodges, W. McD. Evans, J. F. Klein, F. L. Pearsall, R. R. Bellamy, Geo. P. Howie, S. R. Keyes, T. J. Gauss, Frank Lander, N. H. Moore, E. A. Glenn, P. H. Walsh, Betram Quelch, T. M. Savage and Levi Bonham.

It was agreed that the board would pay Mr. W. M. Koch 25 per cent. to collect back taxes. Last year 20 per cent. was paid but the collector got little for the county or himself. Mr. Bob Jarman presented a livery bill for $53, which, he stated, was made while he was collecting taxes for the sheriff in the country townships this tax year. He stated he was paid $100 for his work and thought the livery bill came extra. It was said that prior to this year, the sheriff had been paying out $200 to get the rural tax collected, but that since the fee system was abolished, a man had been put in each township, and this had run the cost this year about $25 beyond the usual expense. The bill was left over to the next meeting.

Maj. W. N. Harriss, clerk of the court, appeared and stated that it seemed to him that there should be a change in the bookkeeping of the Recorder's court and Superior court. For instance, the salary of the clerk of the Recorder's court is charged up to Superior court, whereas the Superior court gets no credit for about $8,000 collected in fines and forfeitures. The point Major Harriss made was that his office was not showing up as it should, that instead of showing a profit of about $1,600, it only showed about $300 on account of the fact that the salary of the clerk was charged up to his office, and all the credits were kept from his office reports. He, Auditor Orrell and W. P. Stacy, Esq., county attorney, are committee to suggest a plan whereby the change desired could be made in the system of keeping accounts.

The question of allowing the Recorder a vacation in June and of paying his deputy in addition to his own salary, was discussed, and left open until the county attorney found the act, said to have been passed by the last Legislature, providing for this. The commissioners were willing the Recorder should have a vacation but were a little shy of paying his substitute unless they had to.

There was notice from the office of the clerk of Superior court that the county had been assessed $300 because of alleged benefits to accrue to the county roads in drainage district No. 3, as a result of drainage operations. The commissioners never heard of such a thing before and were not inclined to pay it unless the law forced them. June 8 is the day property owners must express themselves as to their assessments in the clerk's office and in the county will doubtless file a protest then.

Little else was done by the board, there being little before it and two members absent, so adjournment was taken.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY MEETS.

Southern Presbyterians at Kansas City for Annual Convention.

The general assembly of the Southern Presbyterian church will be held this week in Kansas City, Mo., beginning Thursday morning and lasting several days. Numbers of North Carolina Presbyterians will attend, and not a few will go from this city and section, among them being Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, and Mrs. Wells; Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Brand, also of the city; Rev. P. L. Clark, of Burgaw; Rev. E. B. Carr, of Atkinson; Mrs. Jackson Johnson, of Winnabow, and Mr. A. C. Clark, of Clarkton, all representing Wilmington Presbytery. Mrs. Johnson is president of the Synodical.

Death of An Infant.

Little Elma Dorothy, 20-month-old daughter of Mr. T. J. Wiggins, No. 613 Grace street, this city, died yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock. The remains will be buried in Charlotte tomorrow. Friends sympathize deeply with the family in the loss of the little one.

VOTE ON $200,000 TODAY

Wilmington Citizens Will Pass on Question of Establishing Municipal Wharves.

The proposed bond issue for $200,000 for municipal wharves will be voted on today, after a prolonged campaign which has gradually warmed up to where there is evident more or less enthusiastic determination on each side of the question and a willingness to get out today and work hard for and against the proposition.

The registration for the election is much heavier than had been expected, the number of citizens enrolled for the battle of the ballots being 1,837, divided among the precincts about as follows:

First Ward—first precinct	268
First Ward—second precinct....	139
Second Ward	207
Third Ward	389
Fourth Ward	217
Fifth Ward—first precinct	333
Fifth Ward—second precinct ...	284

To carry, the bonds must have 919 votes, at least; to carry, the proposition must have more than half of the registration. Opponents of the bonds do not have to vote, in order to cast a ballot against them, because the mere fact that their names are on the books is sufficient, but one can vote if he so elects, though it is superfluous. The burden is on the advocates of the bonds, and it is they who must hustle to get more than one-half of the registered voters to cast an actual ballot in the affirmative. They are voting against the books.

The bonds are supported vigorously by the Independent Club, the new luminary that swam into the political heavens this spring and sailed into the primary for the nomination of county officers. It was this club that went before Council with a petition asking that an election be called, and which actively began a fight for the bonds. The election was called for $150,000, but, as the city attorney ruled later, this was illegal, and a second election was called for $200,000, because the law reads, "not to exceed $200,000." Independent leaders are firmly of the opinion that they will sweep the field by sun down, but it is freely admitted that the fight will be close, although the club men say that sentiment has changed wonderfully during the last few days and that if the election were still farther away, the change would make a big hole in the opposition.

On the other hand, the business element of the city appears to be very much opposed to the bond issue at this time, though there is perhaps nobody who does not believe that municipal wharves would be a good thing for the city. The argument against the bonds is that at this time the city should not further encumber itself with debt, but should strive to free itself from floating obligations and decrease the tax rate from the high water mark of $3.10.

Advocates of the issue assert that if carried, the bonds will not increase the tax rate, that the wharves and warehouses it is proposed to build would pay for themselves and could be leased at good rental, sufficient to pay the interest on the bonds.

It is argued that if the city is to build public docks they should be located on Eagles Island, where there is elbow room. This would necessitate a bridge, which all factions appear to want. Pro-bond people say that the question of location is of secondary importance, that the paramount issue is to vote the bonds, and then await the time, and decide upon the location when the time arrives, to establish the terminals.

Many arguments have been made, one way and the other, and the people have had abundant opportunity to inform themselves on all points. Today at sunset the tale will be told. The polls open at sunrise, which will be seven minutes after 5 o'clock, and will close at sunset, or 7:09 o'clock.

Irregularities are charged in the registration, and the work at the polls today will be watched closely.

ANOTHER CUTTER TO REPLACE SEMINOLE.

The Well Known Government Vessel Leaves Today for Baltimore.

The revenue cutter Seminole sails today for Baltimore, Md., and will not be seen in these waters again until Fall. Some other cutter, as yet unknown, will take this station during the Seminole's absence. The cutter goes to Arundel Cove, Baltimore, to the government navy yard and depot there, to undergo repairs and alterations.

Captain Carden said yesterday, in speaking of the departure, that the gymnasium on the government wharf here had been completed and was ready for the apparatus, which is being shipped from Spaulding this week. This is the gift of Lloyd's, the well known underwriters of England, and the American underwriters, in token of the appreciation of the saving of the British steamer Alcazar, which was grounded off Cape Lookout. The apparatus covers all that is needed in a gymnasium and cost $1,000. The building cost the government $1,500. There is also a pool room in connection with the gymnasium.

FAYETTEVILLE BOAT LINE.

To the Editor of the Morning Star—

Dear Sir:—I wish to make a slight correction in the statement which appeared in your paper Sunday morning, the 17th inst., relative to a boat line from here to Fayetteville, or at least to make it plainer.

I did not intend to convey the idea that one would be a losing proposition all the year round, or that the steamer Duplin lost money except on her last two trips, but with cotton and fertilizers, which afford the main source of revenue, being at an end, and the dull summer months approaching, and with low water already here, I figured that a boat would lose in the neighborhood of $75 to $100 per week from now until about the first of October, and possibly the first of November, which I think was sufficient cause for discontinuing the steamer Duplin, and believe if my Fayetteville friends will consider the matter carefully, they will agree that I was justified in doing as I did. I am,

Yours very truly,
J. W. BROOKS,
Pres. Carolina Transportation Co.

Addition to Factory.

A building permit was issued yesterday to the Carolina Metal Product Company for an addition to their present plant on Sixth street between Martin and Greenfield, the estimated cost being $1,500. A permit was also issued to Mr. George Honnett for the installation of a steam heating plant and repairs to the family home at No. 322 South Front street, the estimated cost being $3,000.

MISSION AT ST. MARY'S.

Large Numbers Attend Closing Exercises—Lectures to Non-Catholics.

The beautiful weather and the closing exercises of the Catholic Mission at St. Mary's Pro-Cathedral Sunday brought out the largest attendance of the eight days. Father Doran preached a sermon explaining the devotion of Catholics to the Virgin Mary at high mass.

In the evening his subject was "The Finest Thing in the Catholic Church." The missionary showed this to be the sacrament of the altar, in which Jesus is believed to be really, truly and substantially present, that His body and blood may be offered in sacrifice to the Father, and may be the food of the hungering soul of humanity. Father Doran showed that the Catholic doctrine was firmly supported by the Bible and ecclesiastical history.

From inquiries placed in the question box occasion was taken to explain the use of holy water and incense among the Jews and in the Catholic Church. Another objection was that Catholics eliminated from the Commandments the the prohibition against adoring graven images. Father Doran took a catechism into the pulpit and read the passage plainly given in its pages and the explanation that the Catholics are forbidden to pray to statues of the Lord or the saints, because they have no life to hear, or power to help. They are an assistance to the soul through the senses, and reverence is paid them on the same principle that all good citizens honor the flag, he said.

Last night Father Doran took by contrast the subject: "The Worst Thing in the Catholic Church." He amused his audience with some ghost stories, because he said the ghost that frightened most outsiders regarding the Catholic Church was the confession box. He then answered the ordinary objection raised to the practice of the Church of telling sins privately to the priest, and showed the foundation of the practice to be in the Bible, and in the needs of the human heart. The confessional boxes were thrown open after the service for the inspection of the non-Catholics present and a large quantity of Catholic literature was distributed free.

Tonight the subject to be treated will be "Of What is the Bible?" The lectures to non-Catholics will continue through the week.

BEACH WATER PLANT.

Improvements for Coming Season—New Six-inch Main Laid.

The Beach Water Company, which furnishes the water supply at Wrightsville Beach, have completed the extensive additions and improvements to its plant started last Spring, and are now furnishing an abundant supply of good water to such of the cottages that are now occupied. The company is ready to supply water to all who may apply for service. By these new additions the company's plant has been increased far beyond the present needs of the beach, the company anticipating future developments of the beach to quite an extent.

Most important of the improvements just completed is the new six-inch main which has been laid from the pumping station on the Hammocks along the entire length of the beach. The old main was only 2 inches in diameter. A large electric-driven pump in the pumping station on the Hammocks increases the capacity of the plant at that point. In addition to the Hammocks station the company has driven a well on the beach where it has established a supplemental pumping station. The new well and station are located west of the car tracks about midway of the beach. The company can supply the beach from either station and can operate both at once if necessary.

Fire hydrants connected direct to the new six-inch main will be placed at intervals along the beach. These, with the enlarged capacity of the water plant, should afford effective fire protection. The new water mains will be extended to Seaforth, the development at the southern end of the beach.

The water supplied by the Beach Water Company is said to be as fine and pure as any that can be found. The well on the Hammocks from which the company gets its supply is an artesian well 360 feet deep. All of the new piping has been thoroughly flushed out.

NO FURTHER REPORTS.

Whether Remaining Rural Precincts Named Delegates Not Learned.

Nobody could be found yesterday who had received any report from the remaining rural precincts of Seven-Mile Post, Masonboro and Federal Point, as to the delegates named Saturday night, if any were named. They have only one each, and little interest attached.

The only feature of the meetings was the activity of the Cooper men, and these secured enough delegates to make sure that Cooper men will be sent to the senatorial convention, ready, if trouble arises over the senatorial nomination, to stand by the primary. The Independent Club people did not secure a very strong showing in the meetings, though they apparently have something like a fourth of the delegates. The convention meets next Saturday in the court house.

MARSHAL MITCHELL DEAD.

Passed Away Last Night at Harper's Sanitarium—Remains to Raleigh.

Deputy Marshal P. A. Mitchell, of Raleigh, who was stricken during the recent term of United States court here and hurried to Harper's Sanitarium where an operation was performed for gall stones, died last night at 8:30 o'clock in the sanitarium. His daughter, Miss Carrie Mitchell, who has been with him since the first attack, was with him when the end came. His son was expected from Raleigh on the early train this morning and the remains will be taken to Raleigh this afternoon.

Mr. Mitchell was something more than 60 years of age and for 16 years had been deputy marshal. His death was not unexpected as he had not done very well since the attack and operation. He is survived by his wife and several children who will have the deepest sympathy of friends here and in Raleigh in this their sad hour of bereavement.

In the Ladies' Championship match Miss Margaret Pleasants defeated Miss Christine Stevenson in the second flight and was awarded the cup offered in this flight. For the ladies' championship of the club Mrs. E. C. Holt will play against Mrs. A. J. Northrop. This will be for 18 holes, nine of which will be played Thursday afternoon and the remaining nine Saturday afternoon.

In view of the fact that three of the contests will be played off Saturday afternoon, it is expected that there will be a large attendance, not only of golf players but of all admirers of the game. A cordial invitation is extended all the members and their friends to be present on this occasion.

The annual meeting of the Country Club will be held at the club house Saturday afternoon at which time the various cups will be presented to the winners. This will be final winding up of the spring championship matches which have been of much interest to local golf enthusiasts.

SIX WATERSPOUTS SEEN.

Captain Packer, of Clyde Liner, Reports That Many Sunday.

The people aboard the Clyde liner Navahoe had plenty of thrills Sunday as the steamer came down the Carolina coast, according to Captain Packer, who brought his ship in yesterday from New York. They saw six waterspouts one right after another and it was not such a particularly good day for seeing waterspouts, either. None of them placed the steamer in any danger, however, and the phenomena were viewed in safety.

Children's Day Services.

Interested congregations at Grace Methodist church Sunday morning and at Bladen Street Methodist church Sunday evening, witnessed happy renditions of the children's day programmes, which consisted of songs, recitations, readings, etc. The children executed the numbers very pleasingly and the services at each church were enjoyed by those who attended them.

Services at Harmony.

Rev. J. S. Crowley will preach at Harmony Presbyterian church at Kerr station next Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, when the Lord's Supper will be observed. After the morning services there will be a picnic dinner on the grounds and in the afternoon at 2 o'clock there will be another sermon. This is in the absence of the pastor. Mr. Crowley will be in his own church Sunday, as usual.

Robbery Alleged.

Early Sunday morning, as he was going from his market at Eighth and Red Cross to his home, Mr. J. H. Holland, a well known butcher, alleges that he was set upon by two negroes, assaulted and robbed of $93, most of which was paper, the rest silver. The police have no trace of the alleged highwaymen.

Youthful Ouimet Causes Sensation

BRITISH GOLFERS SIT UP AND TAKE NOTICE—FOUR AMERICANS QUALIFY.

Sandwich, England, May 18.—Four Americans, Francis Ouimet, of the Woodland Golf Club, Massachusetts, open golf champion of the United States; Frederick Herreshoff, New York; Charles W. Evans, Jr., Chicago, and Frazer Hale, Chicago, defeated their opponents in the first round today for the British amateur golf championship and thus qualified for the second stage.

Four other Americans, Jerome D. Travers, of Montclair, N. J., amateur golf champion of the United States; Henry J. Topping, Greenwich Country Club, Connnecticut; C. W. Inslee, Oneida Country Community lub, New York, and Edward S. Knapp, Westbrook, were put out of the tournament by their opponents.

The two American entrants, Harold Weber, of Toledo, Ohio, and Arthur G. Lockwood, Belmont Springs Country Club, Massachusetts, did not play—the former because there was not time for all the contestants to play the first round and the latter because he had drawn a bye in the round. Both will play tomorrow.

The defeat of Travers caused an even greater sensation, if possible, than his victory in the finals would have done, for he was regarded as the most dangerous of the American competitors. He made no excuse for his defeat, however, saying: "I am chiefly disappointed because I played such poor golf."

Travers really lost the match on the greens. A spell of brilliant sunshine and drying winds had made the fair way hard and fast and as a consequence the ball traveled far. But the greens were comparatively slow owing to their having been well watered during the hot weather to keep them in good condition.

It was the youthful Ouimet who played as the British critics had expected Travers to play. The open champion showed himself to be a brilliant and resourceful golfer. He always seemed to be playing well within himself, while his putting was not surpassed by that of any other player. Ouimet had as his opponent C. C. McGregor, of Manila, champion of the Philippines. At the turn the American was four up and he won the match by seven up with six to play.

MADE PARTY DEFENDANT.

Bowers Southern Dredging Company Also Sued for Damages.

An action making the Bowers Southern Dredging Company a party defendant was brought yesterday by A. P. Whitehead, administrator, in the case of Whitehead vs. the Clyde Steamship Company, for damages for the death of young Whitehead on the 24th of last May, when, it is charged, the Cherokee Clyde liner, fouled a cable in such a manner as to cause a windlass to revolve rapidly, the handles striking Whitehead and knocking him into the river.

He was an employe of the dredging concern, and was engaged in clearing the pipe lines for the Cherokee's passage on the river when the accident occurred. Herbert McClammy, Esq., represents the plaintiff. The complaint has not been filed. Suit against the Clyde Line was brought some time ago.

OFF TO STATE MEETINGS.

Representatives of Several Orders Leave Today and Tomorrow.

Representatives of local Odd Fellows' lodges are leaving today for Durham, to attend the Grand Lodge sessions in that city. Several have already gone to the Bull City. Likewise, numbers of Red Men and Eagles are going to Charlotte today and tomorrow for the big meetings of their orders in that city. The Red Men of the State will be there, and the Eagles from North and South Carolina, Georgia and Florida a thousand strong, will attend their meeting and take a big part in the parade tomorrow, the Glorious Twentieth.

Hearing This Morning.

At 11 o'clock today before Justice Bornemann, the Carolina Beach cases will come up for a hearing. In this it is charged that Messrs. A. W. and W. M. Pate and T. H. Nelson and two colored men, Frank Murphy and Henry Farrow, either demolished and carried away, or had it done, a house belonging to Messrs. G. H. and H. M. Currie, of Clarkton, a two-room affair they had built on a tract of 300 acres on Carolina Beach, which they claim is theirs. The case has many phases, and has aroused some interest.

Recipes for Wrinkles and Bad Complexions

Of all the beauty recipes that have been published, here are two that have successfully stood the test of time:

Wrinkle Remover—One ounce powdered saxolite, dissolved in ½ pint witch hazel. Use as a wash lotion. It brings instantaneous results.

Face Peeler—Pure mercolized wax, applied at night like cold cream, only not rubbed in; wash off in the morning. It causes the wornout scurf skin to come off in tiny, almost invisible flakes a little each day, until the fresh young under-skin is wholly in evidence. The beautiful rose-tinted complexion thus obtained is not to be compared with one made over with cosmetics. If the old skin is marred with freckles, pimples or other blemishes, these defects are, of course, discarded with the skin itself. An ounce of the wax is sufficient in any case.

The ingredients named are inexpensive and can be found in any drug store.

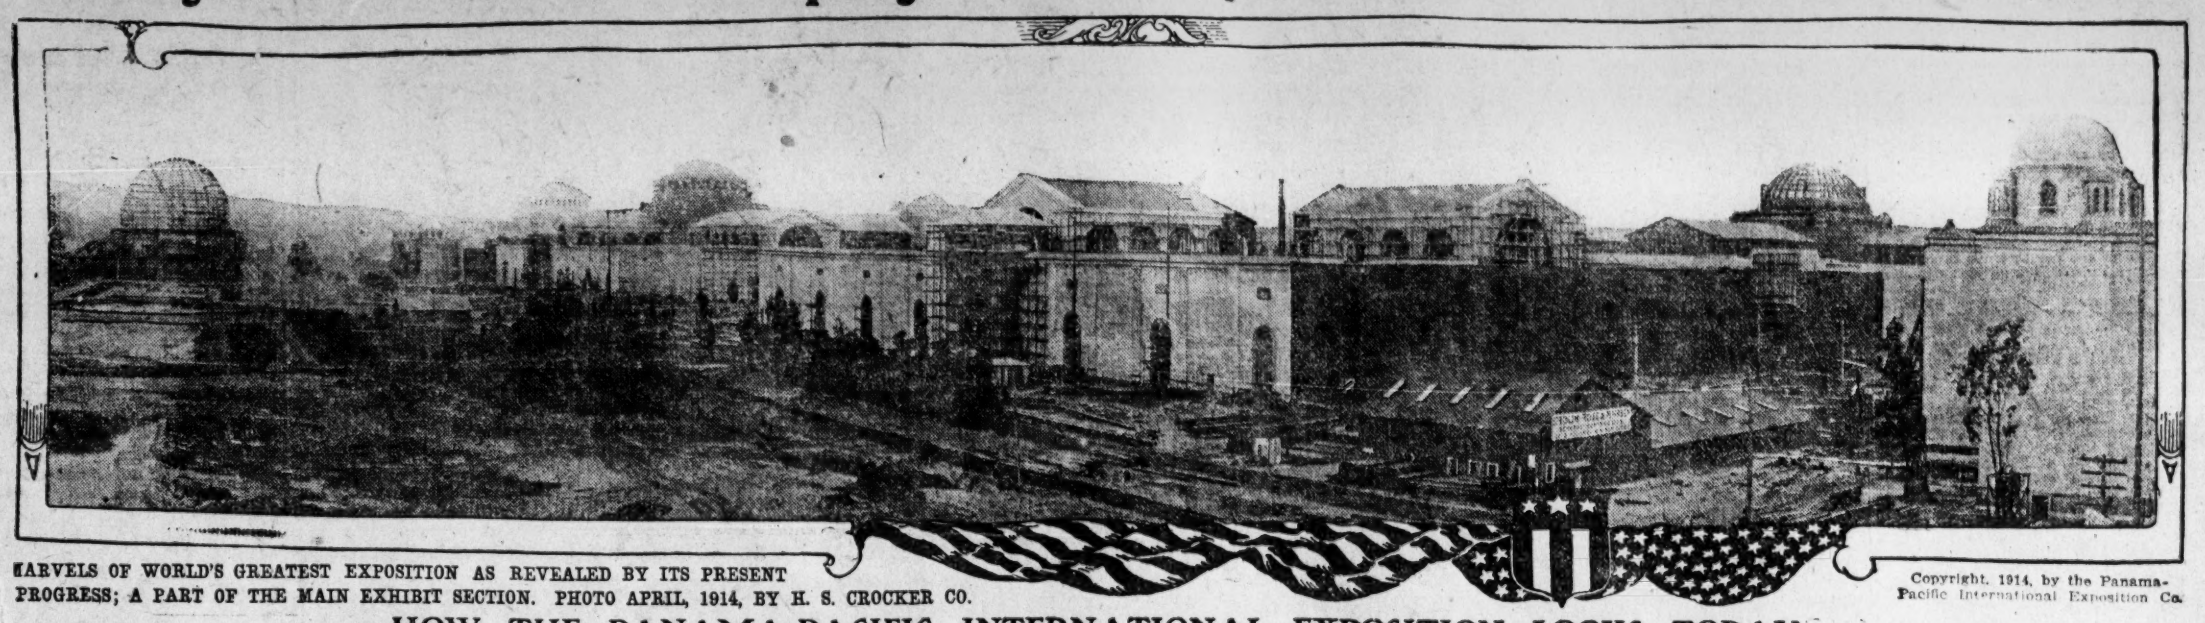
Thirty-five Nations to Display World's Marvels In Vast Exhibit Palaces



MARVELS OF WORLD'S GREATEST EXPOSITION AS REVEALED BY ITS PRESENT PROGRESS; A PART OF THE MAIN EXHIBIT SECTION. PHOTO APRIL, 1914, BY H. S. CROCKER CO.

Copyright, 1914, by the Panama-Pacific International Exposition Co.

HOW THE PANAMA-PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION LOOKS TODAY.

THIS photograph shows a part of the main exhibit section of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition as seen from the south side of the grounds. This large group of buildings lie between the south gardens and a magnificent boulevard on the shores of San Francisco harbor. Thirty-five great nations have accepted the invitation to take part in the great Panama canal celebration, Argentina leading with an appropriation of $1,300,000. At the Exposition there will be displayed a collective exhibit of the world's material, educational and ethical progress such as has never been witnessed in all history.

The highest structure shown is 186 feet. When the Exposition is completed the tallest structure will rise 433 feet. The great height of the building here shown is not apparent because of the elevation at which the photograph was taken. Men and teams at work before the lofty, domed frame on the left—that of the Palace of Horticulture—are not visible in the picture. This dome is 152 feet in diameter. When completed, it will be covered with glass and gigantic searchlights of colored lights will play upon it from within, so the dome will present the effect of the most marvelous soap bubble the world has ever known, glowing with all the changing colors of the rainbow.

In the foreground is seen a portion of the tropical south gardens, which will be transplanted to rare trees and shrubs from distant parts of the world. Huge tree ferns from Australia, banana plants from Central America and many varieties of palm.

The large white dome from left to right is that of the huge Palace of Education. This dome is 160 feet in height and 100 feet in diameter. The next dome, which is of similar proportions and which has not yet been painted, is that of the Palace of Liberal Arts, and next may be seen the dome of the Palace of Food Products. The next building to the right and prominent in the picture is the Palace of Manufactures, on which the dome has not yet been superimposed. The cross naves in this palace, at the intersection of which the dome will be placed, are 110 feet in height. The next dome seen is that of the Palace of Transportation. At the extreme right of the picture appears one corner of the Palace of Varied Industries.

In the opening, in the center of the group and to the right of the first two domes, will be located the huge Tower of Jewels, which will rise in superb terraces to a height of 433 feet. The tower will be cleft by an archway 125 feet high, through which the visitor will enter from the main gates of the Exposition into the superb Court of Honor—the Court of the Universe. Three buildings are almost finished, and all exhibit palaces will be ready to receive exhibits on July 1 of this year. The Exposition opens Feb. 20, 1915.

TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF WAKE FOREST LAW SCHOOL.

To be Celebrated on Wednesday of Commencement Week.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wake Forest, N. C., May 18.—Wednesday, the second day of the commencement exercises of Wake Forest College, will be given over principally, to a celebration of the twentieth anniversary of the law school. Governor Simeon E. Baldwin, New Haven, Conn., will deliver the principal address. He will be followed by Hon. John H. Kerr, of Warrenton. The closing remarks will be from Dean N. Y. Gulley, of the law department. The following is a brief history of the law school:

At a meeting of the trustees of the college in June, 1893, they made an order to establish a school of law. A committee was appointed to arrange for the teaching. The school was advertised in the newspapers, but at the opening of the fall term, 1893, there was not a single law student present. During the sessions of 1893 and 1894 N. Y. Gulley came over from Franklinton, where he then lived, and lectured once a week at night to such men as desired to attend. No credit was given for this work on a degree, and the work was done without any expense to the college.

At the June meeting of the trustees in 1894, arrangements were made with N. Y. Gulley to come over to Wake Forest three times a week and teach such men as wished to study law, and also teach classes in civil government and political economy. Announcement was made for the opening of the summer school. Two men were enrolled, only one of which remained for the entire session. During the regular and summer sessions about twelve were enrolled in all.

At the June meeting, 1895, the trustees made arrangements with N. Y. Gulley to devote his entire time to the law department. The first three applicants for license were at the September term, 1895. All passed, in fact, never but one man failed until the written examinations in 1898. The class has continued to grow in number until now there are from forty to fifty licensed attorneys who receive their training here each year.

The work was continued by N. Y. Gulley alone until 1900, when Hon. S. F. Mordecai, now dean of the Trinity law school, was associated with him and remained here for three years. Work was then continued by Professor Gulley alone until the fall of 1906, when Edgar W. Timberlake, Jr., was made associate professor, and is to the present employed in that capacity.

From 1893 to the present 507 have secured their license from the Supreme court who received their training here. Nine classes have passed without the loss of a single man; quite a number with only one or two failing.

COLUMBUS HAS NEW TRANSPORTATION LINE.

Whiteville Lumber Company's Railroad Connects With A. C. L.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., May 18.—The Whiteville Lumber Company's railroad, leading from Whiteville to Reaves Ferry in the southern extreme of the county, now makes joint connection with the Atlantic Coast Line for transportation of all freight matter and the A. C. L. freight depot here has been made a union agency. The remarkable development of this section of the county has been little less than miraculous since the lumber company made a station at Wattsville, which, by the way, is one of the best berry centers in the State and ranks easily along with Mount Tabor and Chadbourn.

The Western Union has just recently made Wattsville an agency and with the volumes of truck exported from this point during the past season it is a pretty safe prediction that Wattsville will give the other towns in Columbus an exciting race for metropolitan honors. The germ of prosperity that has laid dormant for years has sprung into growth at Wattsville and the citizens of that place, aided by the financial interests of the Whiteville Lumber Company, have begun the erection of a crate and package factory, the cost of which will necessitate the expenditure of several thousand dollars.

Along with this new industry they expect to have a gin and grain bin in operation by the opening of this coming cotton season. The berry production at this point for the present season has been very encouraging and the outlook for Irish potatoes is equally as good.

GEORGE W. BIBLE IS DEAD.

Probably One of the Best Educated Men In the State.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., May 17.—News has been received here of the death in Norfolk of George W. Bible in his 74th year. Although the telegram which told of his demise carried no details, it is probable that death was due to heart failure after a prolonged weakness from bronchial trouble.

Professor Bible had lived in Kinston about two years. Not a great many people here were acquainted with him, and few who noted the dignified old gentleman on the streets knew anything about him.

A short time after George W. Bible was born in Canada, his people came to North Carolina and located in Beaufort county near Belhaven. They owned extensive farming lands, but the estate in the years following dwindled to a small plantation. George Bible was the last of several brothers to die. One preceded him to the grave only last Christmas day, and the old man could with difficulty be consoled. A sister, two daughters and a son, living in various parts of the country, survive him.

George Bible knew something about every science, had read from the literature of about every nation, and could discuss accurately the history of any race. In fact, he is said to have been the best educated man in North Carolina. He was the author of a work on the negro race which has not yet been printed. The work covered many years, was recently completed, and will require eight volumes. He held that the black man is vastly the white man's inferior, and gives thousands of reasons in the manuscript, which is now in the hands of a man who is negotiating with publishers for its introduction before the public. He worked on a number of New York newspapers in the '70s and 80s, and was a star reporter at one time. He was intimately acquainted with many of the people of National prominence of that period. For years he read in the alcoves of the Astor library, and there mastered to a fair degree of proficiency the Chinese language as it is printed. Even in his declining days, Professor Bible spent many hours a day in reading, with the result that there was hardly a subject on which he was not more or less posted.

WILSON PEOPLE ARE WATCHING ANXIOUSLY.

Want to Know Who is Going to be Postmaster.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wilson, N. C., May 18.—Every morning, when the mail is distributed Wilson people are watching enxiously for the first copies of the State papers. —Mexico has lost the grip on Wilson people—the question is always—what is the latest from Washington in reference to the appointment of a postmaster? Just about the time that a telegram is expected telling of the appointment of Mr. S. W. Smith there comes the news of another "hold-up" in the matter.

To be perfectly frank about the matter, as a correspondent should always be, the entire disturbance is personal. Patrons of the office as a whole are smiling and wondering which will win —Mr. Smith, for years known as a winner, or his opponents —never termed quitters or failures. The contest here is not like other contests have been—it is not between various candidates. It was that way once upon a time, but when Congressman Kitchin decided to stand by Mr. S. W. Smith, the other candidates let up. They almost gave up without an effort. As a business man, Mr. Smith stood well qualified. As an energetic, equipped candidate he could not be attacked.

Then came the obstacles to his appointment—influence set in motion by some of his individual opponents —not candidates. First Mr. Smith won, then they played a better hand and again he held the cards and now —there is suspense and it looks like a blocked game.

In the meantime Wilson is waiting and Dr. Person is still postmaster.

TO DR. H. G. HILL.

Loving Cup Presented by Trustees Union Seminary.

Maxton, N. C., May 17.—Rev. H. G. Hill, D. D., the venerable pastor of Maxoton Presbyterian Church for the past eight years, has just returned from Richmond, Va., where he attended the meeting of the board of trustees of Union Theological Seminary, of which board he has been a member for the past 42 years, during which time he has not missed a meeting of that body. As a memorial of this long and faithful service, the board presented him at this recent meeting with a very handsome silver loving cup engraved, showing the time he has been devoting to this work.

Southport, N. C., May 18.—Miss Leola Merritt and Mr. Ernil V. Wessler, of Fort Caswell, were united in marriage Thursday evening, May 14, Rev. C. C. Wheeler, pastor of Southport Baptist church, officiating.

System Awakens With Pure Blood

In Mind and Body the Change is Wonderful.

After the depression, the stagnation, the despair over some blood disorder, it is fine to wake up to what S. S. S. has accomplished for you after a few days' use. It puts the nerves and blood in harmony; it arouses the cellular activity of the liver, kidneys, lungs, and other excretory organs to remove from the blood the body wastes that cause nearly all sickness.

This means that all decay, all breaking down of the tissues, is checked and repair work begins. S. S. S. has such influence on all local cells as to preserve their mutual welfare and afford a proper relative assistance to each other. More attention is being given to catalytic medicine than ever before and S. S. S. is one of the highest achievements in this line. For many years people relied upon mercury, iodide of potash, arsenic cathartics and "dope" as remedies for blood sickness, but now the pure, vegetable S. S. S. is their safeguard.

You can get S. S. S. in any drug store, but insist upon having it. The great Swift Laboratory in Atlanta, Ga., prepares this famous blood purifier, and you should take no chance by permitting anyone to recommend a substitute. And if your blood condition is such that you would like to consult a specialist without charge, address Medical Dept., The Swift Specific Co., 537 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

What Cures Eczema?

We have had so many inquiries lately regarding Eczema and other skin diseases, that we are glad to make our answer public. After careful investigation we have found that a simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen, as compounded in D. D. D. Prescription, can be relied upon. We would not make this statement to our patrons, friends and neighbors unless we were sure of it—and although there are many so-called Eczema remedies sold, we ourselves unhesitatingly recommend D. IN OUR NEW PATENT "EASY-OPENING-BOX"

BUFFALO, N.Y. THE F. F. DALLEY CO., LTD. HAMILTON ONT.

THEATRICAL

The Victoria management has proclaimed that this is going to be the banner week in its history, and every one who witnessed the performance yesterday will heartily agree that prospects are bright for that prediction to be fulfilled. The new show is headed by an act that jumped direct to Wilmington from Savannah and that is known as one of the headliners of the big city theatres. It is presented by the Castillians, who offer a series of living poses in bronze of statues of the masters. It is really a wonderful act, presented on most elaborate and magnificent scale and called for thunderous applause of approval yesterday. The Castillians carry a carload of scenery and effects and their act is a monster, and one of the most beautiful ever seen on the stage.

Other big-time artists on the present bill are Mr. and Mrs. William Morris, who present a rich comedy playlet, "The Lady Down Stairs," and it's a scream from start to finish. The Duquesne Comedy Four also furnishes a great act of laughter and song, and is of star brand. Then there is Martin Van, the cowboy baritone, who presents something classy. New films and a superb new programme by the Victoria's crack orchestra contribute pure delight.

The daily matinee now commences at 4 P. M., with doors opening half an hour earlier.

Today at the Grand.

"The Day Tremendously Artistic" will be today at the Grand Theatre, the people's favorite amusement spot. A three-reel special release is going to lead the way. In three big parts will be presented Pathe's latest masterpiece, a triumph of dramatic art and stage gorgeousness. It is "A Leech of Industry," bearing a powerful tale that will strike fire from every heart. Such a story, too, as will also teach a moral. It is the story of an old Russian who comes to America with his two sons. One is killed in an explosion and the other marries. Later he enters into competition with his former employer and when bids are to be submitted upon a big contract he falls a dupe to his employer's daughter and his brother-in-law. Almost too late he realizes the truth. Then occurs one of the most thrilling and exciting scenes ever flashed on a screen of a "movie". It is a race between a train and an automobile.

The fourth number of "Dollie of the Dailies" will be presented. In this one, entitled "Putting One Over," Dollie is a stunner in every way, and Miss Mary Fuller, the charming and popular actress, does her best piece of acting. She will be supported by such stars as Elizabeth Miller, Charles Sutton, Robert Brower, Robert Harvey and Duncan McRae. The price today will be the ever tiny 5 cents admission, afternoon and night.

At The Bijou Today.

As a headliner on today's bill of fare at the popular photoplay house, The Bijou management is pleased to present to its many patrons a great Nestor drama, just released, entitled, "The Quack," which tells one of the biggest stories ever written in one of the biggest ways ever seen in a movie. It depicts the story of a well known physician, who is really the head of a quack medical concern which dispenses patent medicines and advertises extensively. His son is engaged to a lovable girl, but when she accidentally learns the character of his father, she turns the information over to the authorities and is the means of sending the quack to prison. It is a big story, full of interesting and exciting climaxes, and will be enjoyed by everyone. Such stars as William Wolbert, Wallace Reid, Philip Dunham and Dorothy Davenport appear in the leading parts of this big story.

"A Man, A Girl, And Another Man" is an old story retold in a new way, with a brand new and singular finish that must appeal to everyone as something decidedly original. It is very interesting and serves as a valuable lesson to girls, cleverly acted and photographically perfect.

Another one of those big Universal like comedies, "Universal Ike Almost a Hero" will be found one of the biggest comedies that you have seen in a long time.

A big Keystone comedy furnishes a fitting finale to today's big and tempting menu—a total of four of the biggest, brightest and newest movies that have been released—and all for five cents.

MALPASS STARTS CRUSADE AGAINST "BLIND TIGERS."

Spent All His Money for Whiskey and Wants Them Out, He Says.

A crusade against "blind tigers" has been inaugurated along entirely original lines by one H. M. Malpass, white, according to his story as told to the Recorder yesterday morning. He appeared as a witness against five different persons, from whom he said he had purchased whiskey during the first three days of last week. The reason assigned by him for buying the whiskey and then "turning up" his friends to Plainclothesmen Frank George and B. W. Jacobs was that he had been spending every dollar he could get for whiskey for sometime and that he has decided to drive all of them out of the city that he can.

He made a fair beginning, it seems, for J. L. Long, white, from whom he said he bought several pints, was given three months on the county farm, and Duncan McNeill, an old darkey, got 60 days on the county farm. The cases against D. W. Williams and J. L. Gray, both colored, were continued until today. Malpass also said he bought some liquor from Mrs. J. L. Long but on account of there being five children in the family the Recorder suspended judgment in this case upon payment of the costs.

W. J. Bellamy, Esq., appeared for Long and his wife. He first offered a nolo contendere in the case but Solicitor Peschau refused to accept this and he then submitted for his clients. Under the circumstances Recorder Furlong stated that the least he could do in the case against the woman was to suspend judgment upon payment of the costs and that if she didn't have the money that he would pay it himself. While he stated that he felt sorry for Long he didn't see how he could let him off so easily and, therefore, sentenced him to the roads. It was a pitiable case and one that should appeal to those interested in the uplift and betterment of humanity.

Duncan McNeill, the old darkey, was given 35 cents by Malpass with which to buy a half pint of whiskey. He refused to tell where he got it and went to the farm gamely. Recorder Furlong stated that he would like to let him off with a lighter sentence in view of his decrepit age, but as he wouldn't reveal the source from which he was getting the whiskey that he would have to make him serve time on the farm.

The evidence in the case against D. W. Williams, colored, was heard but judgment was held open until today in order to give him an opportunity to get other witnesses. Malpass said that he went to Williams' home and bought one pint of whiskey which he gave to the plainclothesmen and that he then went back and got a pint for his own use. Williams said that he had never seen Malpass and that he never sold him whiskey. The negro was represented by B. G. Empie and W. J. Bellamy, Esqs.

There were a number of cases for being drunk and disorderly. Willie Williams, colored, charged with assault, and Walter Finderness, colored, charged with vagrancy, were both discharged.

—Mr. M. C. Guthrie, of Southport, passed through the city yesterday afternoon en route to Durham where he goes to attend the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of the Odd Fellows.

WARNED AGAINST FAKER.

Norfolk Minister Tells Public to Beware of "C. Mohammed."

About two weeks ago a stranger, claiming to be the pastor of a mission church in Norfolk, Va., arrived in Wilmington and seeking several Presbyterians of good business standing in the community told them a story of woe of having last his pocketbook with all his money and his railroad tickets. He exhibited clerical permits from several railroads and stated that he was trying to get money to take him back to his "home" in Norfolk. He got several dollars, it is reported, but it is not known just how much.

In the last issue of the Presbyterian Standard is a letter from Rev. Dr. Stuart Nye Hutchison, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, of Norfolk, in which he warns the public to beware of such a stranger, as he is, the minister states, a smooth-speaking scoundrel, who for several years has been making his living swindling generous Presbyterians. Dr. Hutchison states that he has received many letters from persons, whom he has defrauded. He was arrested about two months ago, the minister says, in Bristol, Tenn., but for some reason was given his liberty. Just now he is working in North Carolina. He considers that the church will be done a great favor if someone will have the man arrested and brought to justice.

FURTHER ADVANCE IN COTTON

All Active Deliveries Made New High Ground for the Movement—Apprehension.

New York, May 17.—There was a further advance in the cotton market today with all the active deliveries making new high ground for the movement owing to increasing apprehension as to the crop outlook in the Southwest, and the continued steadiness of the old crop situation. A good deal of realizing was encountered above 12 cents for new crop positions, but the market closed steady and from 2 to 7 points net higher.

The opening was steady at an advance of 3 to 6 points in response to relatively firm cables and a general buying movement which developed toward the end of last week. Liverpool was a buyer of July here and there was a considerable demand for new crop positions from commission connections while there was enough scattered through wire and commission houses to indicate a broadening outside interest. There seemed a good deal of cotton for sale around the opening figures, and reactions of four or five points occurred from the best, but bullish private crop advices from the Southwest were accompanied by buying orders, the outlook was for continued unsettled weather or showers in that section and the daily weather details showed that rains had been more or less general over Texas during the past 48 hours.

These features and predictions of an unfavorable June bureau rallied the market during the middle of the day and caused buying by early sellers, as a result of which prices reached new high ground in the afternoon with May contracts selling at 13.06.

Realizing caused reactions of 5 tor 6 points in the late trading but there was enough buying to give the market a steady undertone at the close.

The forecasts for unsettled weather in the Eastern belt was considerable.

Cotton futures closed steady.

Watchman and Three Workmen Made Prisoners While Safe Is Blown.

New York, May 18.—Posing as detectives, four men gained entrance to a Broadway motion picture theatre early today, made the watchman a prisoner, handcuffed three workmen and blew open the safe in the box office obtaining $10,000. The robbers were in the building three hours and to avoid suspicion of their presence compelled the watchman to wind the various watchmen's clocks in the theatre at regular intervals.

DR. NATHAN ANDERSON DEAD.

Was One of the Leading Physicians of Wilson.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Wilson, N. C., May 18.—After an illness of only a few days, Dr. Nathan Anderson, one of the leading physicians of the town, died this morning. Heart failure was the immediate cause of the passing. The wife and four children survive. The funeral service will be held Tuesday morning.

—Commissioner J. P. Kerr, who is a farmer, said yesterday that the dry weather was getting to be a serious thing for the farmers. Young crops are suffering. Mr. Kerr had an idea that this state of the weather would continue sometime yet, to make up, as it were, for the excessive moisture earlier in the spring.

COTTONSEED CRUSHERS ANNOUNCE THEIR PROGRAM.

Will Hold Annual Meeting at Wrightsville Beach June 16-18.

The programme of the coming annual convention of the Cottonseed Crushers' Association of South Carolina, to be held at Wrightsville Beach June 16-18, has been announced, and it is seen that a number of addresses will be made that promise to be of interest and importance not only to seed crushers but also to cattle men and farmers.

The new cattle industry and what it means to the farmers and oil mills of South Carolina will be the theme upon which Mr. W. H. Barton, of Clemson College, will speak. Another Clemson man, Mr. H. W. Barre, will discuss the subject of cotton diseases and how to prevent and eradicate same. The subject of co-operation between farmer and oil mill man will be discussed by Mr. S. J. Summers, of Cameron, and Mr. W. A. Withers, of the North Carolina A. & M. College will talk about cottonseed meal a feed for hogs. Mr. E. M. Nighbert, of Washington, will have for his subject, "Co-operation Methods In Tick Eradication." Altogether the meeting will be one of interest to many people and a large number are expected to attend. Local farmers will probably attend.

The crushers with their families will come in a special train from Columbia, S. C., and a large attendance of members of the association than usual, is expected. The association met at the beach several years ago and enjoyed the experience so much that the famous resort was selected again this year.

The organization is officered by Mr. John A. Hudgens, of Pelzer, president; Mr. J. F. Stevens, of Kershaw, vice president; Mr. B. F. Taylor, of Columbia, secretary.

STOCKS ADVANCED MATERIALLY

Broad Inquiry for Stocks and Prices Went Above High Marks of Last Week.

New York, May 18.—There was a broad inquiry for stocks today and the market advanced materially above the level reached on last week's rise. It became increasingly apparent that Wall street was seeing visions of better conditions. In January similar conditions existed and there was a spirited advance, but confident expectations then entertained of a revival of business were disappointed.

Prospects for bumper crops constitute perhaps the most tangible basis for optimism. So far as actual improvement in business conditions there is as yet little to be pointed out as justifying expectations of an early business revival, but reports of trade authorities are hopeful.

Gossip of the street today dealt chiefly with the prospects of a speedy decision in the rates case and the further reports from Washington concerning the outlook for adjusting the Mexican problem through mediation. The firm tone of the foreign markets also was a favoring influence. Cable advices were optimistic and London took 15,000 or more shares here after marking up prices of American shares there.

The unexpectedly poor bank statement of Saturday had some effect on the money market. Rates for short-term loans were higher, and mercantile discounts also were on a firmer basis.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales par value $1,890,000. nited States bonds were unchanged on call.

timony today was a complete surprise to the defense.

The defense will open its case tomorrow morning. Becker will not be the first witness. His attorneys tonight refused to say definitely whether or not he would be called later, although they assert Becker has demanded an opportunity to speak for himself.

Mrs. Becker to Testify.

Mrs. Becker will go on the stand and try to save her husband from the electric chair. She is expected to contradict much of the testimony given by the witnesses for the State who swore that Rose and her husband were very friendly. It is understood that she will also attack Plitt.

If Becker testifies it is understood he will admit that he met Rose on many occasions, but will assert that the relations between them were simply those that exist between policeman and his "stool pigeon" which Rose admitted he was.

There are about 30 witnesses under subpoeno to testify in Becker's behalf. The case may be in the hands of the jury by Saturday.

After recess late totday the defense read to the jury a copy of the testimony before the grand jury that indicted Becker. In this record Plitt swore Becker was innocent and had been "framed" by Whitman.

Letters written Becker at Sing Sing prison and after he was brought back to the tombs were produced by Mr. Manton. The letters were addressed to "My Dead Pal Charles" and contained numerous assertions that Becker was innocent. Half of them Plitt finally confessed were in his handwriting.

One letter addressed to the tombs and signed "Hiram Charles" was dated April 2nd. At that time Plitt said earlier in the day he was holding conferences with Assistant District Attorney Groehl.

In the letter Plitt asked Becker if he still wanted to "give him the cold shoulder" and whether the writer could do something to aid the former policeman.

"Why were you negotiating with Mr. Groehl?" asked Mr. Manton.

"I was trying to fix it up for Becker to confess and show up the 'men higher up' as grafters," answered Plitt.

Stuck to His Story.

Plitt stuck to his story about being asked by Becker to kill "Bald Jack" Rose, the informer, while Becker was being taken on a train from New York to Sing Sing.

Plitt appeared to be even more nervous during his cross examination than at any time during the trial.

James Marshall, a negro youth, followed Plitt on the stand.

"I first met Charles Becker," said Marshall, "during February, 1911, when he gave me $10 and told me to gamble with it and report to him where I had gambled. From that time on I gambled in many places, always reporting to Becker."

Marshall also told of seeing Becker near 124th street and Seventh avenue in conversation with Jack Rose and other men he did not know, the night of June 28th, 1912.

This corroboration by Marshall to the story of Rose, Weber, Vallon and Schepps regarding the Harlem conference which the court of appeals declared to be the "heart of the conspiracy to murder Rosenthal," furnished what the district attorney declared to be sufficient proof that it actually occurred. At the Harlem conference it had been stated previously, Becker met the three first named conspirators while Sam Schepps waited in a nearby automobile.

During the conference Becker, it was said, demanded of Rose that Rosenthal be killed and urged Rose to have the gunmen "do the job as quickly as possible." Marshall's testimony is considered by Mr. Whitman to be more important than that of any other witness.

When Figures Lied.

An old player was entertaining some friends with baseball stories. One of them was about a game between Mobile and Savannah, in the Southern league. The score stood 5 to 4 in favor of Savannah when a row occurred, and the umpire awarded the game to Mobile by the usual 9 to 0 score. On the way home from the grounds two negroes were discussing the affair.

"But if Savannah had five runs," said one, "how could the scoab be nine to nothin'?"

"Dat's easy," replied the other. "Didn't Mobile hav' foah runs?"

"Ya-as."

"Well, den, don't foah an' five make nine?"—New York Post.

"Plea" In the Legal Sense.

In the legal sense the word "plea" is grossly misused. One reads that the lawyer during a trial "delivered an eloquent plea to the jury." He did nothing of the sort. He delivered to the jury an argument or an entreaty that may or may not have been eloquent. A plea is properly used only of the pleadings or arraignments before a trial, not of the "argument" at the trial. A plea is invariably addressed to the court; an "argument" may be addressed either to the court or the jury. The same applies (still in the legal sense of the words) to the verbs "to plead" and "to argue."—New York World.

Carpet Making.

Tradition has it that the carpet industry owes its origin to the Saracens who escaped the disaster inflicted on the army of Abd el Rhaman by Charles Martel on the battlefield of Poitiers in the year 732. In the sixteenth century the carpet industry extended to the towns of Felletin, Vellagarde, Montier Rozeilles, Chenerailles and other towns in the vicinity of Aubusson.

FAILURES.

Fail, yet rejoice, because no less
The failure which makes thy distress
May teach another full success.
It may be that in some great need
Thy life's poor fragments are decreed
To help build up a lofty deed.
—Adelaide A. Procter.

AVERTED THE DUEL.

Valor Vanished With the Choice of Weapons and Conditions.

Representative Borland of Missouri gives an account of the challenge to a duel which occurred in Louisiana, supposedly among the last challenges of that environment in the state. The affair was between a gentleman who belonged to one of the oldest families there and a sturdy blacksmith of Georgia, who had become a man of political influence.

The gentleman took offense at some remarks of the Georgian and sent him a challenge. The powerful blacksmith was nonplused.

"'I know nothing about this dueling business,' said he, 'and I positively will not fight.'

"'You must,' urged his friend. 'No gentleman can refuse.'

"'I am not a gentleman,' replied the honest citizen of Georgia. 'I'm only a blacksmith.'

"'But you will be ruined if you do not fight,' continued his friends. 'You will have the choice of weapons, and you can choose so as to give yourself an equal chance with your adversary.'

"The giant requested time in which to consider the matter and ended by accepting. He sent the following reply to the Louisiana gentleman:

"'I accept, and, in the exercise of my privilege, I stipulate that the duel shall take place in Lake Pontchartrain in six feet of water, sledgehammers to be used as weapons.'

"As his adversary was about five feet eight inches in height and the blacksmith was seven feet, the conceit of the latter so pleased the Louisiana gentleman that he declared himself satisfied, as he was one who could appreciate a joke as well as perpetrate one, and he declared the duel off."—Exchange.

HIS DREAM MATERIALIZED.

Curious Incident In the Career of Novelist S. R. Crockett.

One morning the postman brought to S. R. Crockett, the novelist, a letter from the editor of the St. James' Gazette containing a small check as payment for a contribution. Mr. Crockett knew that nothing was due to him, that he had been paid for all articles, and—remarkable man—he did the check up in an explanatory note and returned it to the editor.

The next day back came the check from the editor—remarkable man—with a note saying it was due. The St. James Gazette had published an article from the pen of Mr. Crockett which had not been paid for, hence the check. Again Mr. Crockett—remarkable man—returned the check, and still the remarkable editor reforwarded it, this time with the article cut out of the columns of the St. James' Gazette.

Now comes the curious feature of the incident. When Mr. Crockett clapped his eyes on the article he was astonished to find it one of his dreams materialized. One night, going to bed extra tired, he dreamed that a good idea for a St. James' Gazette column had occurred to him, that he then and there sat down, wrote it and posted it. Next morning he remembered his dream and made up his mind some day to write the article exactly as he dreamed he had written it, when, to his astonishment, came article and check from the newspaper. Few writers earn checks while asleep.—London Standard.

East Africa's Big Game.

Big game of British East Africa, outside of the three preserves of the colony, is rapidly vanishing and, according to W. T. Hornaday, "is absolutely certain to disappear in about one-fourth the time that it took South Africa to accomplish the same result." Mr. Hornaday points out that the present legal bag limit is ruinously extravagant. For $250 any man may buy the right to kill 300 head of hoofed and horned animals of forty-four species, not counting carnivorous animals that may also be killed. Thus the richest big game fauna of any one spot in the world, which nature has been several million years in developing and placing there, seems likely to be wiped out by man within the next fifteen years.—Chicago News.

Just an Oversight.

It was 9 o'clock in the morning in an English town, and the roads were blocked with snow. The maid, who had been given a week's notice, was facing the last day of her sojourn in the house. She handed the usual cup of tea to her mistress in bed and then said sweetly, "Oh, ma'am, when ye asked me yesterday if we had everything in for tonight's party I forgot to tell ye we are out of coal and the furnace is goin' out."

This Earthly Stage.

"The sun," remarked the kindly citizen, "shines for all."

"And that's what worries some people," averred the caustic citizen. "They seem to think the sun ought to be handled as a spot light."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

As He Saw It.

Wife—Oh, I saw the dearest little hat today.

Hub—That's just like you—always looking for the dearest instead of the moderately priced.—Boston Transcript.

Temperamental.

"How is the star actress today?"

"I don't know. The doctor's in her room now taking her temperament."—Baltimore American.

AUTOMOBILE MAKES A RACKET.

Quietude of City Disturbed Sunday Night by Popping Machine.

The usual Sunday night quietude of Wilmington was rudely disturbed at 11:30 o'clock by what was apparently the firing of a gun some two score or more times in rapid succession in the vicinity of Sixth and Market streets. It later developed that it was the exhaust from one of the taxicabs of Burnett's garage, but so realistic was it that Policemen S. H. Fulford and A. E. Munn, mounted officers, gave chase for several blocks to see who it was doing so much shooting.

Later the machine going down Second street started up again and disturbed the slumberers in that section. The police department was deluged with inquiries yesterday morning as to cause of so much shooting. There were many who were ready to take oath that there had been a near-riot.

Meeting at Pearsall Church.

Sunday marked the beginning of a week's revival at the Perasall Memorial church in East Wilmington, Rev. Robert King having the services in charge. At the first service the church was filled with people and interest plainly manifest. The service last night was well attended, and the public is invited to attend each night this week.

most the interests of the church, until such time as the transfer to the patronizing conferences is complete.'

A commission named by the General Conference is charged to act jointly with commissioners to be named by the patronizing conferences, in establishing the latter in control of the University "and in the legal procedure necessary to enforce the same and to act for and in behalf of the patronizing conferences in the assertion of rights to Vanderbilt University."

An early return of the amended report is anticipated.

The vote today ordering the revision was practically unanimous.

The conferences today also approved the report of the committee on education which endorsed the work of the General Board for the quadrennial and ratified the plan for the creation of an amendment fund. It was suggested in the report that $500,000 be raised during the next quadrennium. The question of laity rights for women was made the special order for tomorrow morning.

DANIELS IS HEARD IN MECKLENBURG

more college trained men in the legislative halls and the public offices of the Nation and pointed out some ideals that should prevail at an institution of higher learning that is a real fountain head of life for the State and Nation. He recalled what the University of Wittenberg had done for Germany and the University of Glasgow and other schools had done for Scotland.

Before the audience at the graded school exercises here tonight he expressed the hope "that the United States would never be called upon again to go to war with the distressed country of Mexico," and he said it was cause for congratulation that the Nation had in the White House a great man who loves peace, justice and mercy.

Mr. Daniels was guest of honor at a reception given tonight at the Selwyn Hotel under the auspices of the Greater Charlotte Club. He was met on his arrival from Davidson by Mayor Bland, officers of the Greater Charlotte Club, guests and hosts being escorted up town by two local military companies and one boy scout company. He said in the course of an informal address that whatever sins he might be charged with he could not be charged with doubting the genuineness of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence, which event Charlotte begins celebrating tomorrow.

FORMING HABITS.

Be careful about how you form habits. Some young people never consider habit forming. They form none but accidental and unconscious habits. They know so little that they think they could change any habit they have in a day. Yet in reality they are binding themselves in chains of iron and making a free and happy life impossible for themselves later on.

MAN'S TRIALS.

Men think God is destroying them because he is tuning them. The violinist screws up the key until the tense cord sounds the concert pitch, but it is not to break it, but to use it tunefully, that he stretches the string upon the musical rack. —Beecher.
